HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE

F.B. Gallant

How does one define a school year, analyze and describe it? Especially, how is this done when an article has to be written half way through the year and not at the end!

At the end of January, perhaps the dominant impression in everybody's mind is how much work there is to do. There is a lot to do. But a great deal has already been accomplished, and it is this that we tend to forget while we concentrate on the present and the near future. When I am asked for an article for the yearbook, it is like being asked for an answer as to why we have exams, and tests and constant evaluation: is it to measure how far we are from perfection, or to measure how far we have come?

I do not think there is anything useful to gain by seeing - or trying to see - how perfect we are. It is better to see what we have accomplished over the year, what we have achieved, what we have succeeded at as individuals and as a community. Are we farther forward now, than at the beginning of the year? Are we changed, have we made progress, have we learned something, are we wiser?

Somebody once said of a famous man: "He has remained the same, but the same is no longer fitting." The trick is to learn to improve on what we have, to develop, to learn and put that learning to use. Remaining the same means that we are perfect and there is nothing further to be done.

Some time in the future, at alumni reunions, you are going to hear someone say, maybe to you, "My gosh, you haven't changed a bit." If that is meant as a compliment on youthful good looks, fine. If it is meant as a comment on the whole person, not so fine. School years are years of rapid change and development, sometimes in spite of our best efforts to resist. Change and growth is exciting, especially when the outcome is an increase in learning and understanding and wisdom. We will never be perfect, but we will never be the same. If you do not think so, keep this yearbook and look at it again in twenty years. Have you changed? Certainly. Are you better? I hope so.

SPECTRUM STAFF

As another school year passes, life and its numerous adventures fade into the realms of memory. However, some of those best moments are hopefully captured here in the 1986 SPECTRUM, your own personal key to unlocking the good memories of a successful year. The year was full of uncountable highlights and lowlights, but whatever they be to you, they are for your benefit in the years to come.

An organization cannot function by itself, and this case is no different. My thanks must go out to all the people involved for putting up with me and with the tremendous burden of producing a yearbook. I am no easy taskmaster, and the company we are using is a different one than from the year before, thus creating a doubly difficult situation. However, as you can obviously see, we made it!

First of all, to Mr. Ashworth and Mr. Duncan, our advisors who provided us with their invaluable time, many thanks. With the almost complete computerization provided by Mr. Ashworth's computer, we managed to progress at a much faster rate than anybody expected. To the artists, Oleg and Dave, your work is superb and we'd have been lost without you. To all other layout people, photographers, etc., I can never say enough; this yearbook is the proof of all your hard work. To my good friend Eddy - thanks for all the fun!!! And last, but by no means least, good luck to Carola for next year.

Mrs. Benedictine Carruthers: Did you hear of "Mom"? If you were in need of a smiling face, a sympathetic ear, somebody to cheer you up, you probably "made tracks" for the infirmary. On the other hand maybe you were really sick. For the past two years you were able to find "Mom" there even though she might have spent a sleepless night. For two years until June of 1985 "our nurse" gave all her time to keeping us well. At least she tried to do so. Imagine the number of meals served in the infirmary. How many times did she read a thermometer? Then there were those of us who wanted a pill only to find that an aspirin or a Tylenol were what was needed. An M.E.! Were you ever convinced that you needed one -- desperately? Sometimes the idea appealed and sometimes not. There was always sympathy but that useful note was elusive. Being a nurse in a boarding is often a lonely task. People don't always appreciate what is happening. The nurse gives a lot. Others want a lot and give little. In spite of that "Mom's" good humour remained. She liked us and we liked her. We were sad to see her go, but we know that other responsibilities were calling her. Good luck "Mom" -- "Bennie". We won't forget!

Best wishes for the future!

Micheal Peirce is the complete Stanstead man. He arrived at the gates in September, 1969 to enter grade nine. He graduated from grade twelve in the spring of 1973 and left for Queen's University that fall. As anybody who knows Mike could tell you, he was a full-time participant and contributor during his student days here. Mike played hockey and soccer at all levels and in the spring he was a member of the track and field team. He was also a keen softball player and a cross country skier, as well as a prefect and deputy head of Colby House, an all-boys residence in those days.

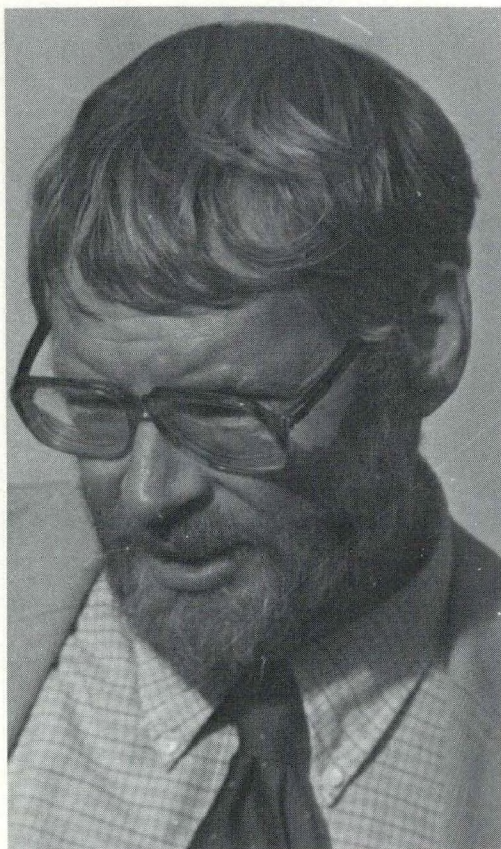

At Queen's Mike took an honours degree in psychology and then spent another year at McArthur College to take a teaching degree. It was during this final year that Mike returned to Stanstead as a student-teacher in his spring term. After this try-out, he returned in the fall as a full-time member of the teaching faculty and as assistant house director in Colby house. This was in 1978. For the next four years, Mike taught mathematics and psychology, coached hockey, soccer and started the Stanstead swim team, went to Bugbee House as assistant house director and married Carmen - the best move of his career to date.

In the summer of 1982, I persuaded Mike to take on the position of the school's first full-time director of admissions. For the next three years he worked very hard in establishing this position and even then found time to take over as the House Director of Davis House and to continue building the swim team. Whatever he took on, Mike gave it his full attention and approached every challenge and task with enthusiasm and talent.

When Mike left in the summer of 1985 to take up a teaching position at Appleby College in Oakville, the school lost a most valued and trusted member of the faculty and Appleby gained a first-rate Stanstead man. All of us wish Mike and Carmen the very best of luck and success in their new home and jobs in the wilds of southern Ontario. And thank you, Mike, for a job well-done at Stanstead.

Barry Gallant

Bill Walker is the third member to leave us of the five dedicated British immigrant teachers, who landed in Stanstead in the summer of '69 in search of fresh pedagogic challenge. "Whisper it not in Gath" that an offer of treble the British salary enhanced the "dedication" and "challenge".

Bill and family settled in quickly, overcame the modifications to the language found on this side of the Atlantic and, like the rest of us, quickly found the G.C.E. "o" Level French was about as much use in Québec as Cantonese is in Scotland.

The youngest of the newcomers very soon made his mark as a most successful coach in soccer, tennis, and squash as well as in his academic field as History and Geography teacher. Having survived three years as Davis House Director - a post that only the most intrepid teacher would contemplate at this time - he sought other fields of activity.

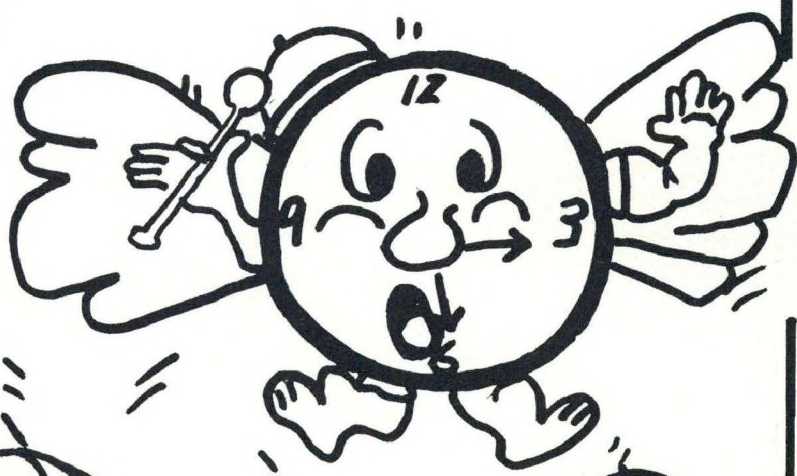

For many years he devised, managed, directed, produced and took part in the annual "Variety Show" and even succeeded in getting a Faculty Act on stage, much to the delight of the students! The staff as actors won no "Oscars", but acts such as "Sweaty Betty" and the recovery, by Agent 007, of the stolen Saga food formula for meat-loaf (a loss that would have caused nation-wide student unrest) went down well.

Latterly he was elected Vice-President of S.C.A.T. and chairman of the food committee both of which time-consuming and sometimes thankless tasks he performed with his usual energy and determination. The Walker family as a whole have played an important role in College life and in the community. Simon was Head Prefect and a distinguished athlete before graduating and Emma also was a prefect and a distinguished athlete graduating last year. Sue played an active role in Colby House with her duties. She also taught sewing classes and is known as a dress-maker who ranks amongst the best. No social occasion can ever be quite the same without Sue Walker! Mark, the youngest of the Walker children, was only beginning his Stanstead career at the time of his departure but was already finding his place here. We miss them sorely and wish them all the best.

DAVIS HOUSE

My first year as House Director was certainly an interesting one. At the first of the year the house was full as it had never been before. Two rooms previously used as part of the Assistant House Director's apartment were converted into an extra three beds, and every one of them was needed.

After the inevitable "this wasn't the way it was done last year" syndrome wore off, the house settled down and it was a very good year.

Thinking back over the year several things come quickly to mind: Our E.S.U. students, William and Laurence, certainly brought a distinctive character to the house. Our Kuwait connection, Ayman and Ahmad, the latter who could always be found in any heated argument going on "I swear to God that's the truth"! Our smokers founded a very distinct club and were always being hounded by me to keep the room clean! The unauthorized water fights in the spring, the ever popular Thursday night house meetings and the curiosity involving when the detention list would be posted - some things never change from year to year.

Residence life is full of traditions and while some die slowly over the years, Davis certainly has its share. Initiation is September (especially for former Bugbees) is always "interesting", the occasional Kangaroo court with its various rituals and the reaction whenever a junior foolishly chooses to enter the house!

A lot of good things happened this year. The House Committee, after a slow start, did an excellent job of making money for the house. Sunday sandwiches were a continued success as well as the Saturday late night movies. All in all there were a lot of good times.

My thanks go to several people. Mr. Daly in his first year as assistant was very helpful. The prefects did a good job of running the house, and to them, I have a big 'thank-you' for helping and supporting me throughout the year. The T.O.D.'s were always there with encouragement, and carried out their duties very effectively which made my job easier.

To the graduates, good luck in the future and I hope you leave Davis House with many good memories.

X. Abrioux

COLBY HOUSE

Colby House settled in for the year with a Junior House enrollment of 24 and 35 Seniors.

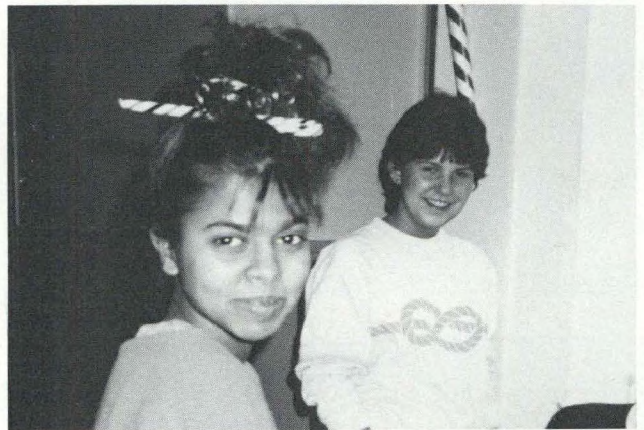

We welcomed the use of the new lounge built in the former 'fan-room' situated over the Computer Lab. Along with the Peynado family's gift of a V.C.R. and the Bourgaults' T.V. gift, we were able to add a much-needed section to the recreation side of dormitory life. A V.C.R. "club" was organized and the residents select films of their choice, (within a few bounds set by the Headmaster and House-Director!)

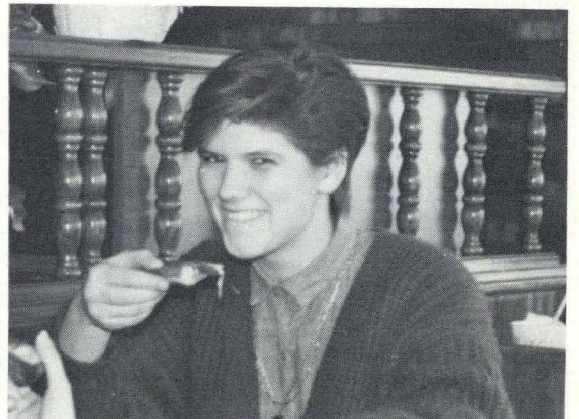

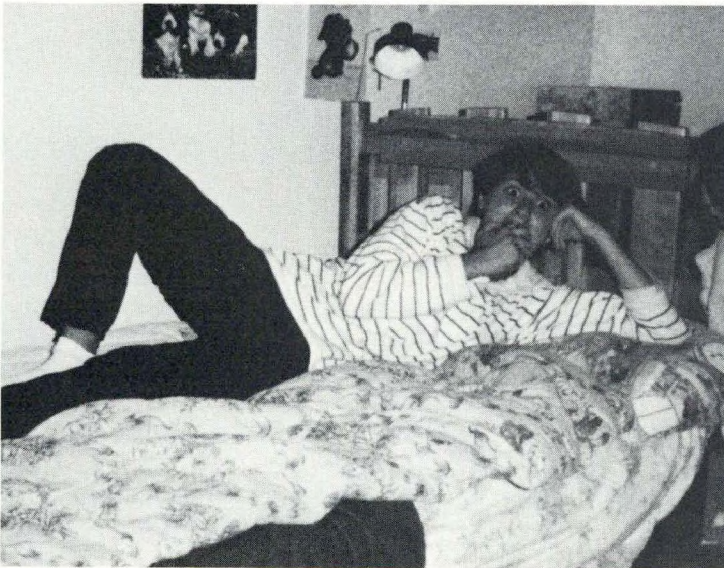

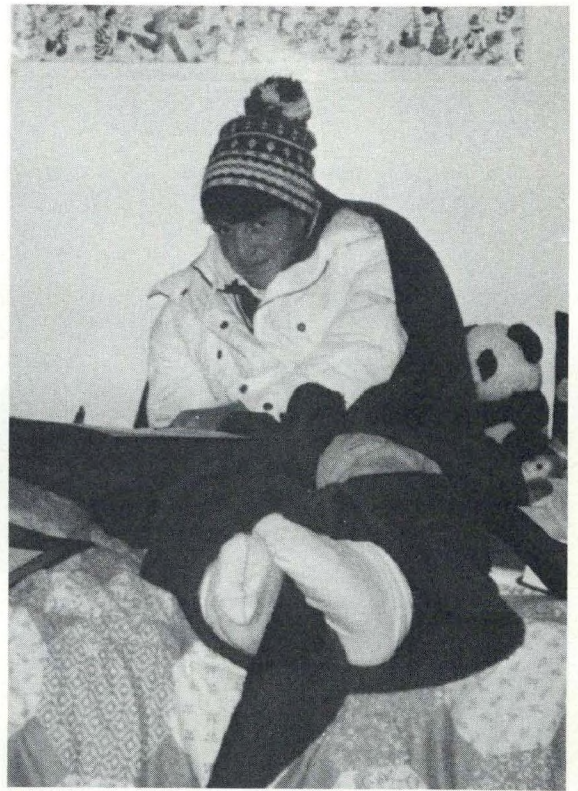

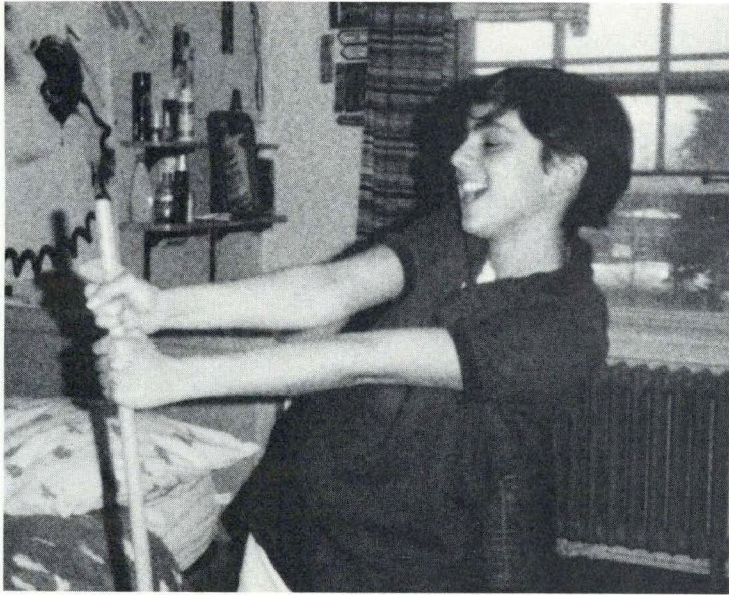

The residents represent 6 countries this year, with Spanish and Chinese languages competing with the French and English.

The inhabitants of C310 were locked into more than their habit when the door latch broke! After much intricate surgery by P. Ashworth, C. Jacques and the girls themselves, it took one mighty karate effort on the part of maintenance Supervisor L. Reynolds to free them!

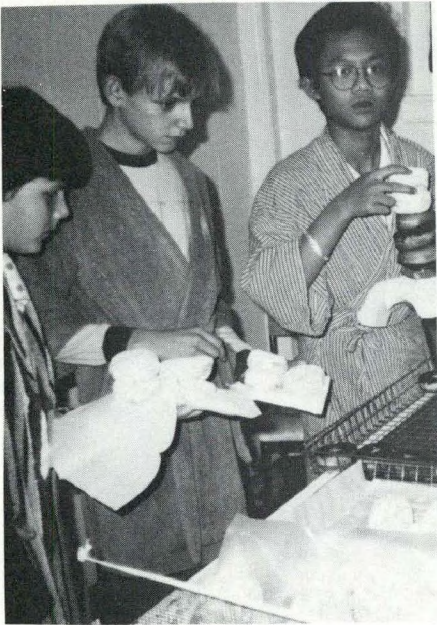

My best wishes to those who leave Stanstead this year. I'm sure good memories will travel with you. To those remaining I urge you keep alive the spirit and traditions of Colby House.

Doris Edgar
Colby House Director

BUGBEE HOUSE

After a whole summer of no kids and lots of maintenance activity, Bugbee House began to fill up with excited and anxious boys on September 4, 1985 as the one hundred and thirteenth year of Stanstead College got underway.

This year was a bit different in that grade nine was not the largest grade in number. However, what they lacked in number they more than made up for in leadership and responsibility. It is in part thanks to the majority of the nines and the committee members that the house ran so smoothly. However, the rest of the students are also to be congratulated because, with few exceptions, they all chipped in and made a real effort at living together as a family.

In any boarding situation such as we have one always finds problems of adjustment. Over 50% of the students in our house are new students who are faced with a huge adjustment not only to a new school, new routine and new teachers but also to new friends, new rules and a very large family. Most of the new students, as usual, have made the adjustment well. Some still find it difficult to accept that we are all different and that allowances and tolerances are necessary throughout life. This is just a problem of maturing, but they learn well.

The house committee has done a super job, not only in helping the students, but also has, with the help of several students, worked hard with our soft drink machine and our Thursday evening food sales. Congratulations to all of you - this has been our most successful year to date.

I would like to thank all the students in the house for an especially good year. I would also like to thank the prefects and seniors who live in the house because they add a very important dimension; they really set the pace and offer the younger students models that they can look up to and respect. The T.O.D.'s do a great job - they are always around helping out and giving lots of academic guidance.

A very special thanks to two people. Firstly, my wife who not only shares the birthday cake baking but who also helps with duty and puts up with me to boot. Secondly, our loving Assistant House Director, Miss Carleton who is so good at picking up the pieces I sometimes shatter. To you both a very special thank-you.

Well that's it for another year - number fourteen for me. Some say I am getting too soft but that's not really the case. I am just continuing to learn from my wonderful oiseaux.

Peter Ashworth

This year the Bugbee House Committee was comprised of five students: Representing grade nine are Thierry Leuzy and Andrew Battah. Representing grade eight are Russell Johnson and Martin Gauthier and representing the grade sevens is Cedric Watier.

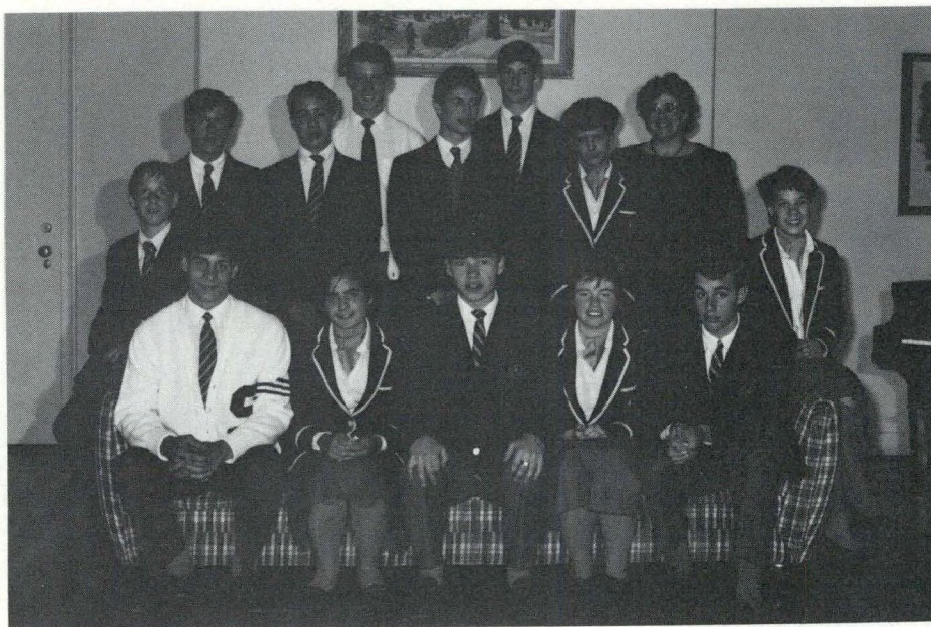

At the beginning of the year some of us were not sure what was expected but we soon found out. Our responsibilities were really three fold.

Firstly we helped with getting the new students settled and then tried to keep their adjustment problems to a minimum. Secondly we over saw the Thursday night food sales. A new and better source of doughnuts was found and we mixed these in with our hot dog bonanzas and our smoked meat specials. Thirdly we helped Mr. Ashworth with the general running of the house and acted as a liason with the T.O.D.'s where necessary.

We would like to thank the prefects for all their help and support during the year.

This year's animation committee had an excellent year. We were very busy throughout the entire year organizing a wide variety of activities for the students. During the year we arranged dances for many occasions and also managed to try on some new ideas such as lip sync, candy grams, carnations and boxer shorts. We had some very innovative ideas that we hope will be continued next year and after that.

Special thanks must go to Mrs. Duncan for the excellent job she did all year. Without her there wouldn't be an animation committee. We had a great time organizing everything and we hope you enjoyed the year.

THE PREFECTS

Standing: L. Becker, M. Harding, C. Paquette, B. Fleury, E. Lyon, N. Dickins, A. Savard, G. Bruce, C. Michaud, L. Duncan, A. Breault, M. Khalil. Sitting: C. Mickie (Head Prefect), Mr. G. Gallant, L. Reynolds.

The prefects' responsibilities this year seemed to be rather heavy, due to the fact that we started off the year with a relatively small number of prefects. Considering that a very large percentage of the student body was comprised of new students, we had our work cut out for us. With the addition of four new prefects during the first term and the gradual acclimitization of the students to the various aspects of boarding school life, we managed to get things in order. This left the rest of the year for more enjoyable pursuits such as testing the teachers' stamina in sports-oriented activities, i.e. soccer, volleyball, and softball.

The prefects chosen are from grade 11 and 12, and are selected by the headmaster, the teachers, and by the previous year's prefects. Although being a prefect may seem to be a privileged position, it can often be a difficult and demanding job that takes up a lot of spare time (doing duties for example). However, suffice it to say that this year's prefects have been faced with tough challenges and have managed to live up to their required duties admirably.

Colin Mickie,
Head Prefect.

The choir was extremely popular this year; students of all age groups were interested. Unfortunately only a certain number could join and some cuts had to be made.

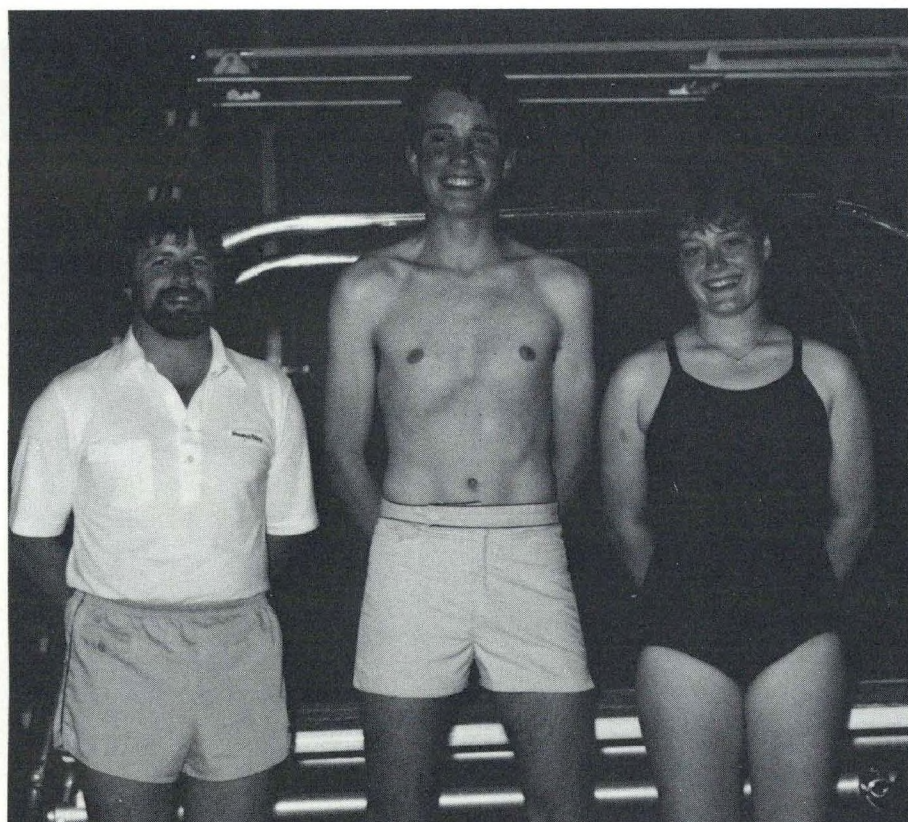

We had a specialty for Christmas, two soloists, Richard Lyon presently in Gr. 7 and Peter Harris in Gr. 11. Their performance in Good King Wenceslas was delightful.

We owe all our gratitude to Mr. Philip, Mrs. Duncan and Ms. Harris for all the time they sacrificed for us. Without them we couldn't have had such a successful year.

LIFEGUARDS AND SPORTS COMMITTEE

This year's lifeguards consisted of only three people; Josée Charette, William Hall, and myself. Mr. Channell took care of the regular duties such as swim classes, and was the coach of the swim team.

Each one of us had our equal share of duties whether it was Saturday or Sunday; fortunate as we were, there were no accidents or drownings.

CAMERA CLUB

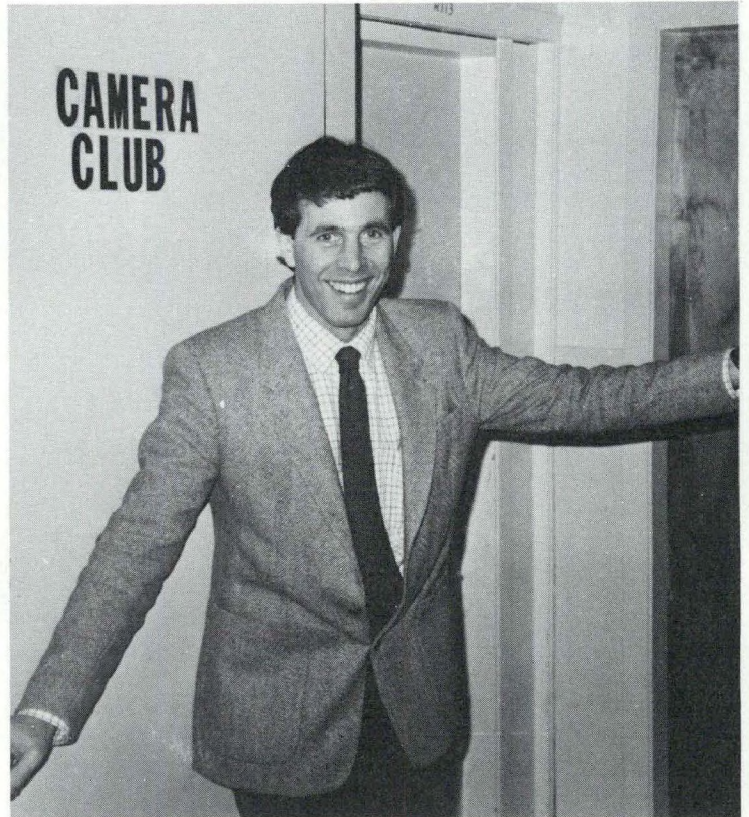

After a long absence from Stanstead the Photo Club returned to the scenes with the expert guidance of Mr. Marc Shefler.

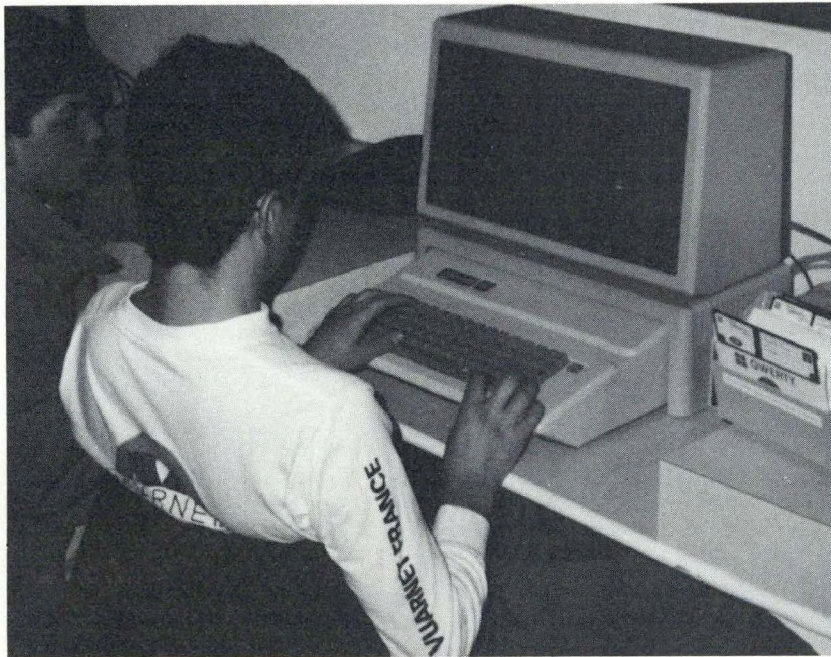

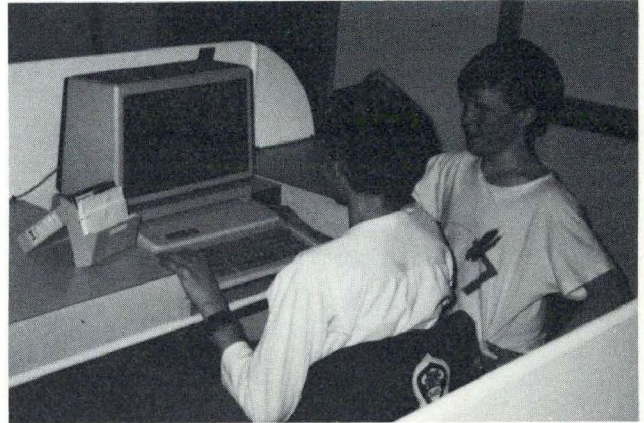

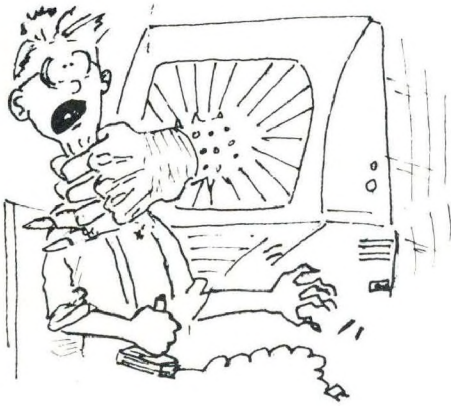

We worked enthusiastically on projects involving the yearbook, sports, and other activities. A highlight during the fall term was a display of our work on Parent's Day. We enhanced our knowledge of cameras with developing, printing, and occasionally . . . uhmmm . . . ruining film. We were to meet with Kodak and view their video series on photographic techniques.

This year, many of our pictures were chosen for the Spectrum. We look forward to producing some exciting prints next year.

COMPUTER CLUB

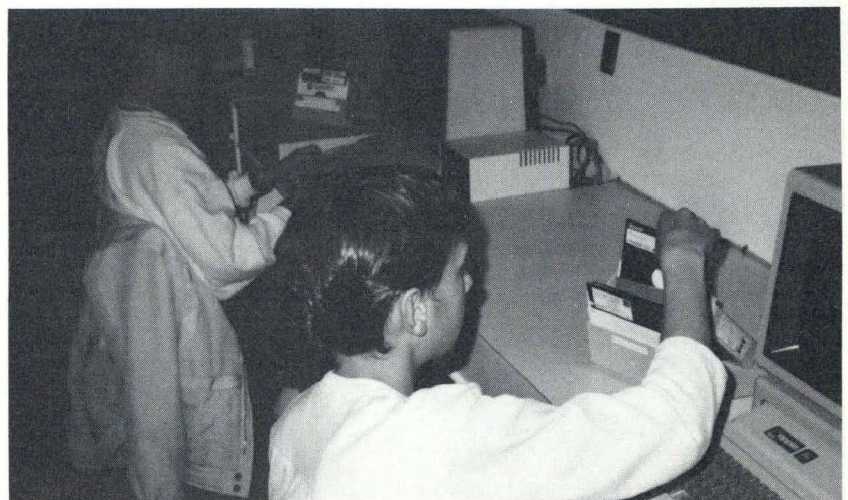

The computer club was a BASIC success;
while only a few gave the DOS-boss distress;
it was a RUN-in and a HOME-out;
and LOADS of fun without a doubt.

Noise and games, games and noise;
each Tuesday and Thursday computers were toys;
that each "USER FRIENDLY" thought were his own;
and guarded them jealously like APPLE from a CLONE.

Some kids programmed with a 16K RAM;
while others just played games and ran;
it might have DRIVEN into something stronger;
if only the key could have been SAVED a little longer!

TAE KWON DO

Back Row: C. Vocisano, N. Saporoff, B. Guay (instructor), M. Harding, J. Dupont, A. Audebert. Front Row: S. Jacobs, S. Chiu, J. Harding, T. Denney, G. Bélanger.

This is the second year in a row that Tae Kwon-Do has been held in the school, and with the introduction of club nights we managed to hold a regular class of about two hours every Tuesday night. We had to pack a lot of training into those two hours because we needed to get ready for tournaments, testings, and the occasional special event or two. For those serious enough, there were extra classes over at Sunnyside school twice a week which gave us extra training time if we needed it.

To many people, the Korean martial art is just a series of fancy kicks and punches with a loud yell added for effect. However, to those who know better, Tae Kwon-Do is a serious form of physical exercise, self-defense, and even meditation. It represents discipline and self-control, and benefits greatly everyone who takes it. The ability to approach many potentially dangerous situations with a confident and relaxed attitude and to possess the knowledge, if necessary, to protect oneself, is a great advantage both 'on the street' and in everyday life. It is this that we teach, not fanciful techniques designed for show only. Tae Kwon-Do is a serious martial art which teaches more than physical violence: it is also a mental philosophy as well.

There were quite a large number of people interested in taking Tae Kwon-Do, but with conflicting clubs and the usual excuses people had there were actually only a dozen really keen individuals. However, those twelve were more than willing to work and their efforts made everyone proud to be a part of this group. The spirit showed by these individuals was great to watch, and with several girls and quite a few juniors there was certainly a wide spectrum of abilities and keenness shown. Overall, there was a definite togetherness and intensity shown by everyone that amounted to a lot of work yet many good times as well.

Special thanks must go to our sensei, Mr. Guay, who put in incalculable time and effort to help teach us. His attitude is an example to us all of how we should approach Tae Kwon-Do, and we all owe him a great deal. To all the people determined enough to stick it out, I personally thank you. Keep practising what you have learned, yet above all remember the five tenets and apply them whenever you can. Good luck and I hope you continue, wherever you may be next year.

RIFLE CLUB

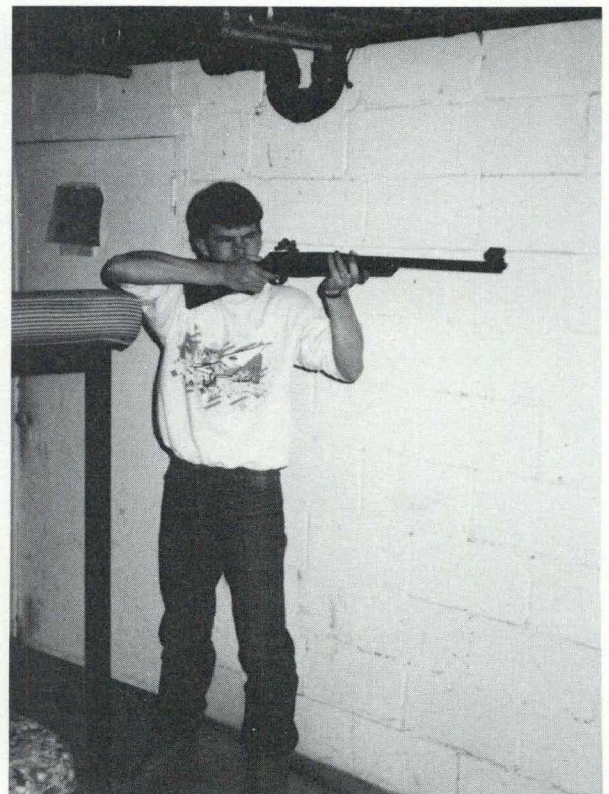

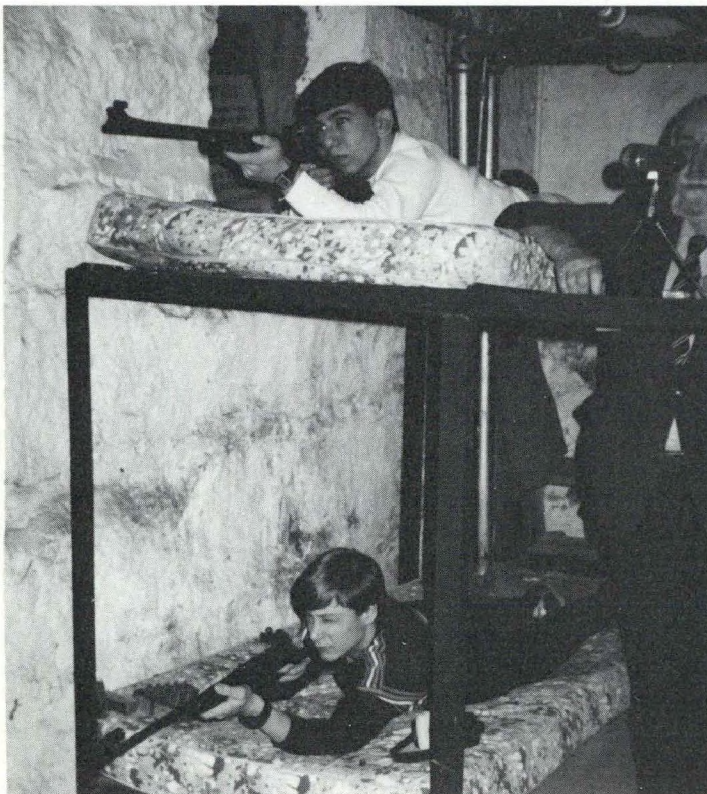

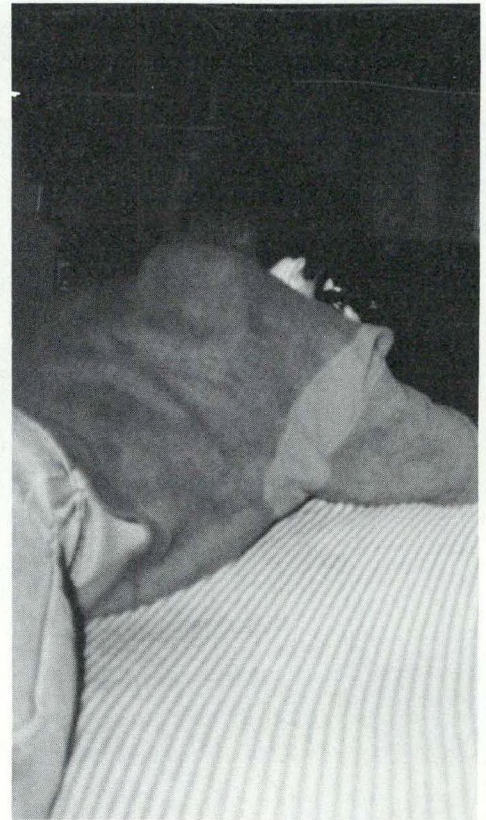

The Rifle Club has been very active since the beginning of the year, competing for medals in the National I.V.I. shooting sports programme. To date 19 students have won Bronze Medals, 14 have won Silver Medals, and 6 have attained the very high standard requisite for their Gold Medals.

In addition three students are well on the way to winning the next award up from Gold - Sharpshooter. This latter award is only won by those with a very high degree of skill and determination. Within the last sixteen years only 15 have made it to Sharpshooter.

Hopefully, by the end of the year, Janet Edgar will be the first girl to win a Sharpshooter award at Stanstead College. Three in one year will also be a record.

ANTIQUE AUTOS VISIT CAMPUS

THE CAMPING ADVENTURE OF THE 7'S & 8'S

IT WAS

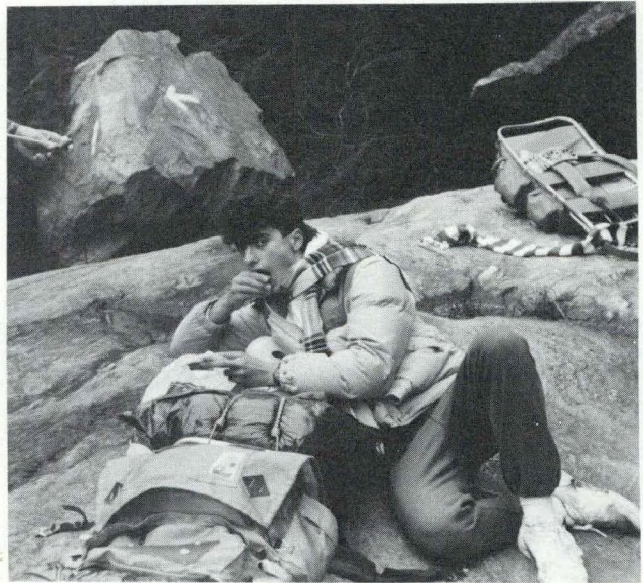

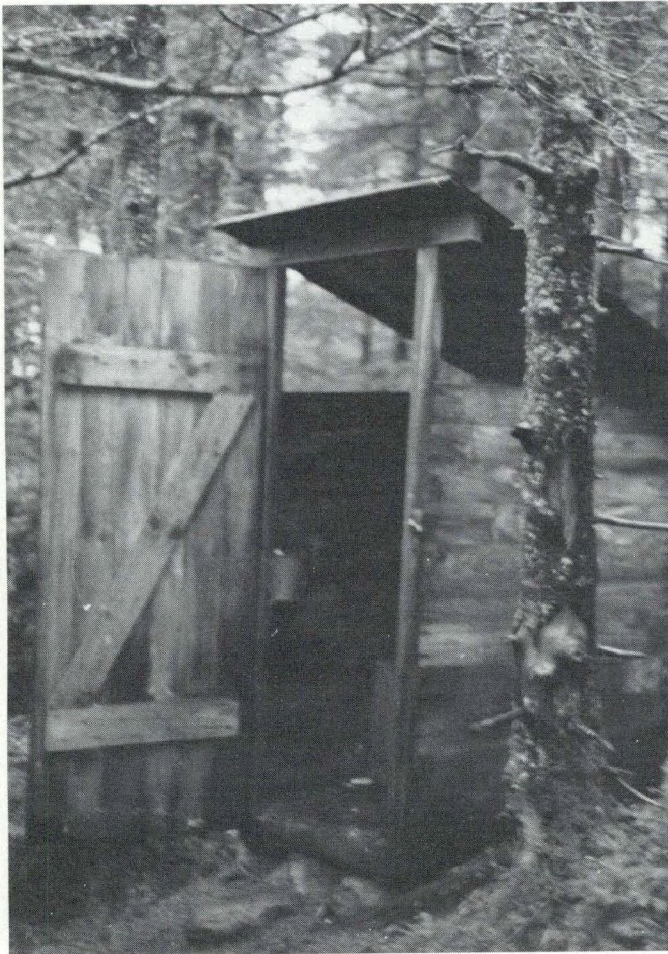

A VERY WET

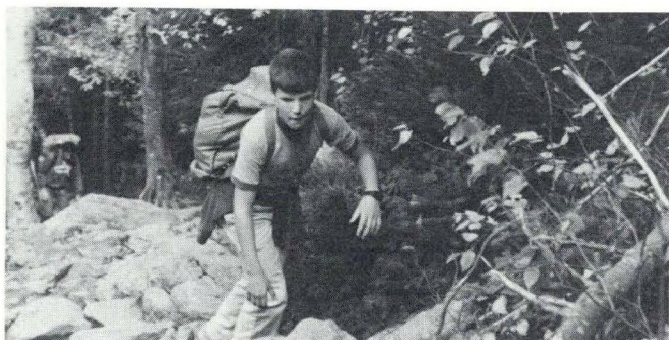

TWO DAYS

OUTING CLUB

The Stanstead College Outing club came to life this fall with a successful climb up Mt. Washington. Mother Nature cooperated and 13 hardy souls climbed up and up and up . . . Reaching the top we were greeted by large groups of camera toting tourists sporting "I climbed Mt. Washington" tee-shirts. (In their cars of course.)

What a shock. The abrupt transition from fragile alpine meadow to the crass commercialization of the summit taught us all how easy it is to spoil nature.

Confident in our outdoor ability we regrouped and planned an overnight hike across Jay Peak. On the Long Trail tempting November's fickle weather, 14 intrepid souls set out on our odyssey. Looking like a procession from the hicker's relics' association we hiked 2 miles in to Shooting Star Shelter.

Gently falling snow created a fairy-like scene. Everything went perfectly until . . . It rained, and rained, and rained.

A shelter designed for 8 became temporary home for 14 as one by one tents were literally washed off the hillside. Lessons were learned! Never sleep under rocks and pitch tents on high ground! Next time we'll know!

Next morning 14 wet souls traipsed our back to civilization (McDonald's) where hypothermia was averted. Give us the tough life any day!

Upcoming events include working weekends at our Fitch Bay property, a cycle tour of lake Nemphragog. A canoeing weekend and hopefully white water rafting.

All in all, a great outing season.

This year's investment club got off to an earlier start than last year's, and enjoyed a large amount of success. The club invested in a number of companies including Walwyn, Disnat, Hiram Walker and others. Most of these did well for us while others were not as profitable.

A share in the Stanstead College Investment club cost $50 and in return, we were able to give $66 back which is approximately a 32% return on the investment over this short space of time.

Perhaps the most valuable aspect of the club is that it gave students a chance to enter a stock market, experience its ups and downs, follow the companies' progress in the newspapers, and feel like a part of this very important feature in our economic system. A highlight of this year's club was a trip into Montreal in which we visited the Montreal Stock Exchange, Nesbitt Thompson's brokerage firm, and the Montreal Gazette. These three places provided us with very interesting and informative tours.

This field trip and the entire investment club was made possible through the hard work of Mr. Elliot and for this we would like to express our gratitude.

Along with the every-day stuff like picture frames, stuffed animals, dolls and pom-pom jars, we made seasonal things as well; wreath and baskets and pasta-angels." Virginie Drouin - "In this club we had a great time. Everybody is always in a good mood until we have to clean up. Mrs. Ashworth makes us laugh . . ." Rosalie Kasowski "the club has done very well this year and I hope we are able to have it again next year."

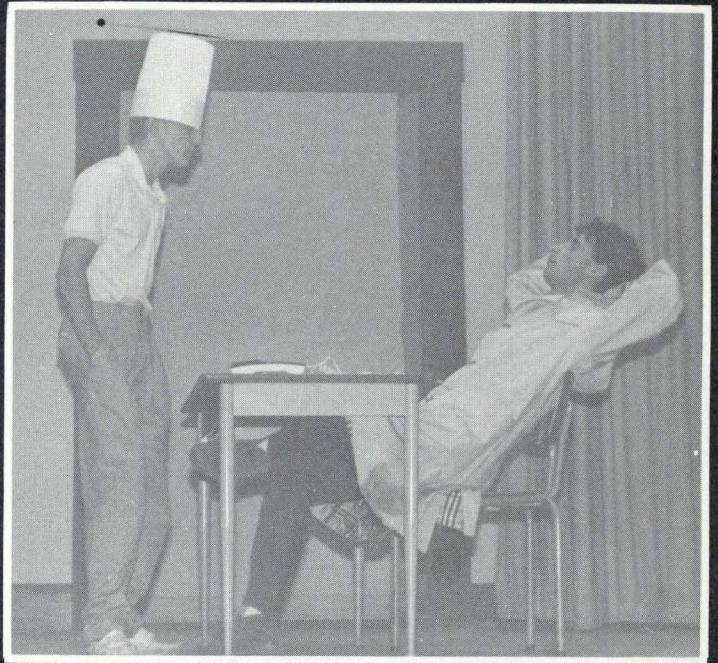

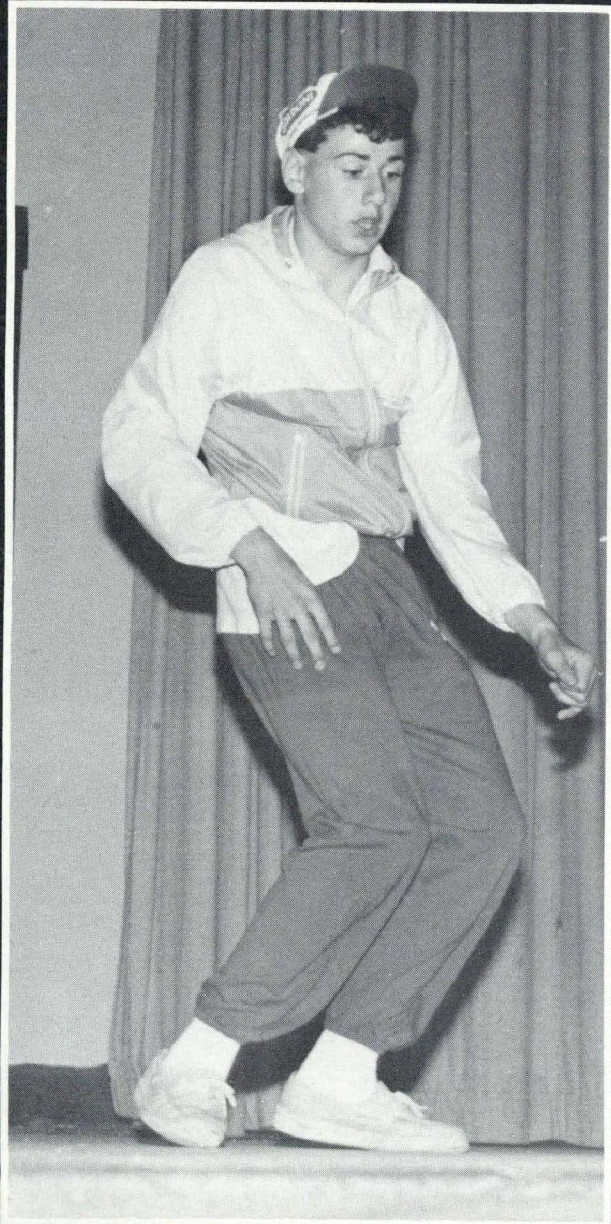

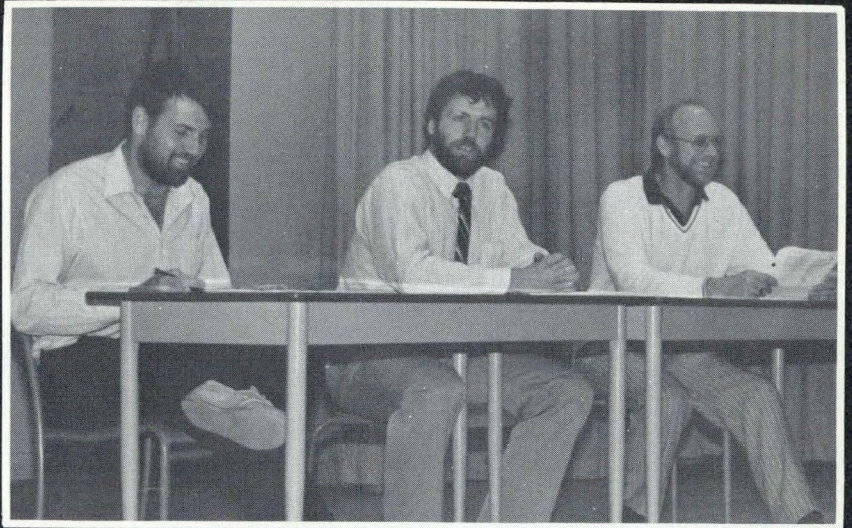

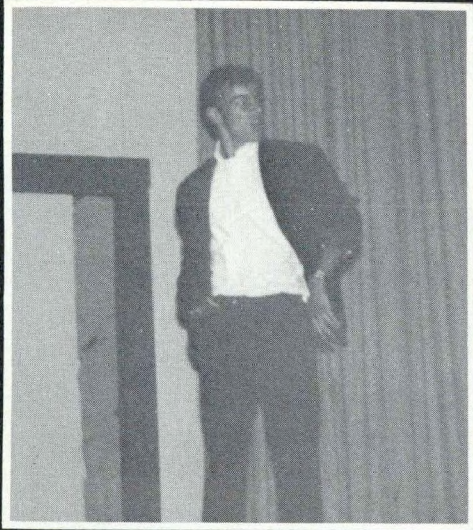

Other members are Rachel Gallant, Nancy Dewey and Marie-Claude Laberge.

Club is co-ordinated by Mrs. Edgar and Mrs. Ashworth.

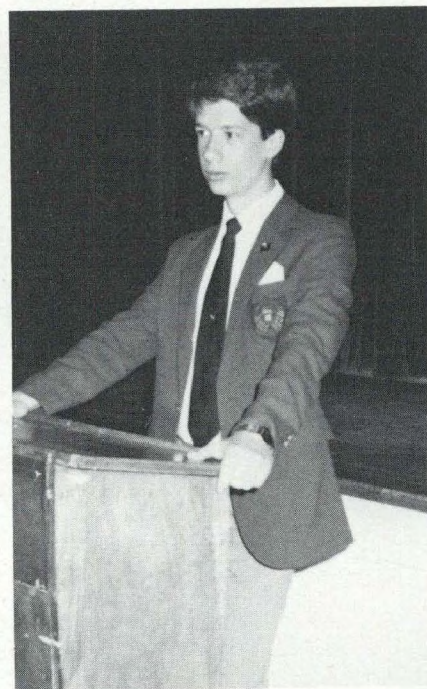

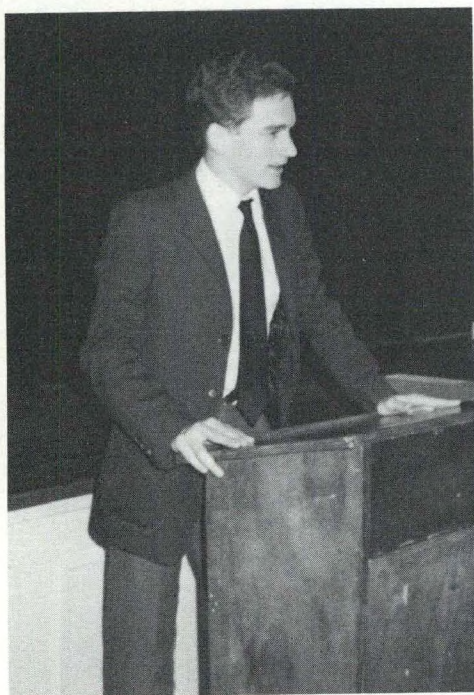

THE VARIETY SHOW

DEBATING AND PUBLIC SPEAKING

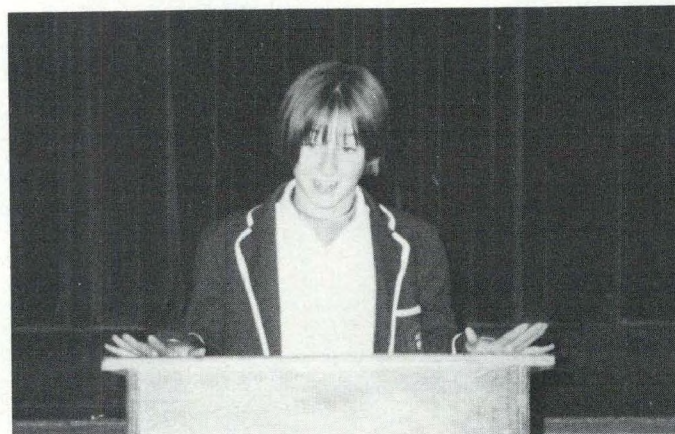

The club started well in a competition held at St. John's Kilmarnock in October. Matthew Harding, Peter Harris and J.F. Prieur went down to a gruelling weekend of debating, impromptu speeches and prepared speeches, in competition with teams from Private Schools from all over Canada and the U.S.A. The long journey to Waterloo, Ont. was not helpful, neither was the loss of Neil Dickins, who had an athletic commitment. Nevertheless all three were judged to be in the running for the finals, but just did not make it.

After Christmas Neil Dickins competed in the Q.A.I.S. contest held at Villa Maria, Montreal. He made an excellent speech, which I, from an obviously prejudiced point of view, thought was an outright winner. Unfortunately the judges, in their wisdom, decided otherwise, and he was not placed.

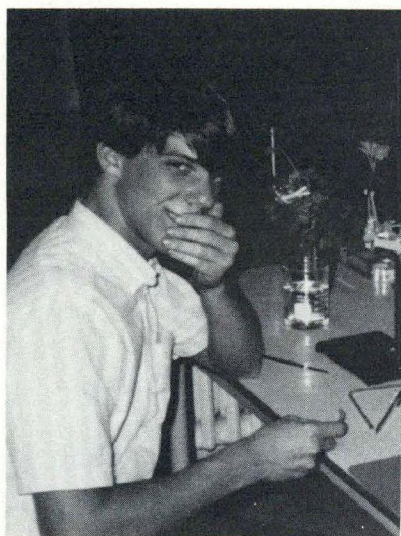

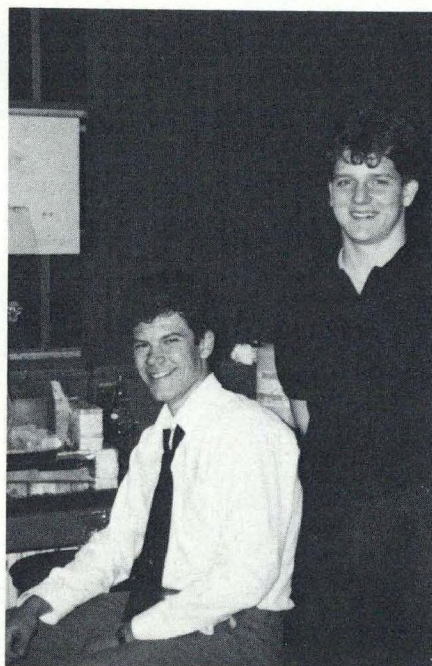

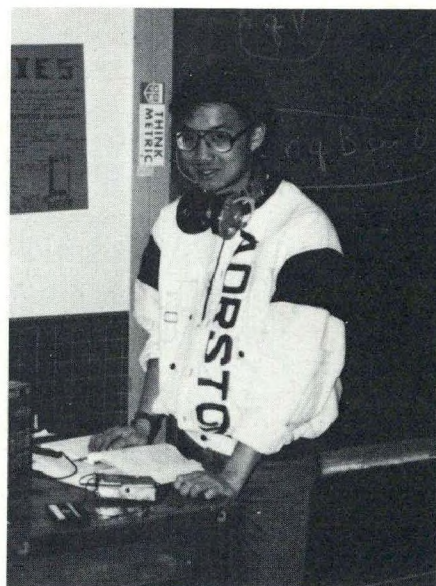

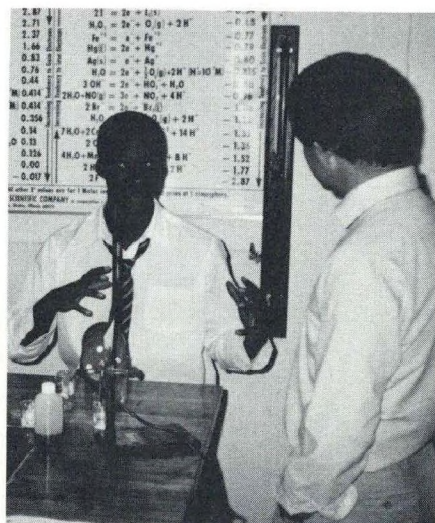

The Provincial Debating Tournament, held at Macdonald High school, was a success. Neil Dickins and Peter Harris acquitted themselves very well. The latter was selected as one of the 8 students to represent Quebec in the National finals. Neil was placed not too far down the list; a most commendable performance when one considers the size of the Provincial Schools against whom we were competing.

A junior contest is coming up in Montreal this April. Leah Thomson is all ready to go there and win.

The Senior Boys soccer participated in many close games. The team was competitive all season and with a few breaks could have easily been fighting it out for top honours. The team's record was 4 wins, 7 losses and 2 ties. The boys showed great intensity and talent. Not only were they a team on the field, they were also a close knit group off the field. The team wore the Stanstead colours well!

Memories are what make life fun. This season provided many for both the players and the coach; our indoctrination to British culture, compliments of the British connection, William and Lawrence, learning important Chinese words from Chris and Derrick, the Ottawa approach to soccer according to Jeff and Charlie, Smurf's long, long sleeve shirts, the coach's enforced visit to the dentist . . . The list goes on and on! All in all, it was a season to remember!

Mr. Retchless

Neil was our keeper, he played in the back,
There to support him was TAE-KWON DO
Matt.

Then beside him were Bernie and Chris,
Then come Jeff screaming "Ha Ha you missed".

Sure there were some that were a bit faster,
But they all paid when they came to Richard the Hacker.

Now what about Lawrence, he could burn
them alive,

And then came Charlie with his 9.5 dives.

Out on the wing was Chibib, a little timid at first,

Then there was William "Bloody Hell" he cursed.

I was there on the left side,

And Chris Chik saying, "I thought you said outside."

Out there was Cam, and little man Smurf,

They both played though,

They both held their turf.

Then at center there was Colin,

He let them fly hard!

And Mr. Retchless our coach,

the one with the yellow card.

We will remember the songs we had sung.

And the one and only Derrick

Fung. And at last but not least, screaming.

"Let's get a goal!"

Was our manager, the wonderful Joel.

"Well here goes another season." That's what I said when we first got on the field, but with the addition of a few new players, we made quite a good season for ourselves.

The highlights of the season were when we gave all we had to beat W.I.C., then to beat Galt; L.C.C. weekends when we came 3rd out of 10 teams.

The senior soccer team would like to thank Mr. Retchless. He got us in shape with his small jogs and helped us to play up to our potential. We would like to thank our manager Joel, who did a good job.

SOCCER

Dear Girls,

It was a pleasure to work with you this year. I must admit that I was apprehensive before the season started, with only two returning senior players. Then Lori managed to break her elbow at the Galt Tournament. Annie stepped in as co-captain and handled the situation quite ably. Lori and Annie, your roles as co-captains were greatly appreciated, not only by me, but by the rest of the team as well.

It gave me pleasure to see you all work together as a team; improving your skills, testing your ability, persevering when times got tough. You never gave up, and for that I thank you all. You made my job easy in comparison to yours.

Although we are never able to recognize all the people who contribute to something good, all of you should take pride in what you accomplished this year. Congratulations to Senior "S" recipients Alison, Eva, Lynnea, Caroline and Lori; and to Major "S" recipients Annie, Carola and Isabel. To Leslie, our player/manager, a special note of thanks; after a well-played game, you still managed to collect all the equipment and return it to its proper place.

I know that some of you will not be returning next season; goodbye, I'll miss you. To those of you who will be back, I really am looking forward to another year!!

Love,
Miss 'C'
(Patty Carlton)

This year seemed to be different from the past years, probably because of the large number of new players.

As it started out, we had about 7 out of 17 experienced players. Fortunately for us, some of the new players had actually played soccer before, so in the end things turned out quite well.

We had a fair season; we all learned new things as we went on. Our coach, Miss Carleton was very patient and always willing to take time and help us out. We all appreciated that. Thanks!

The 1985 Cross-Country team had, for the most part, a rewarding and enjoyable season. The rewards were not numerous in terms of trophies and championships but most of the team were more than satisfied with some excellent improvements individually. Some of the team members surprised themselves that they were able to run as well as they did and to feel good about themselves for having put in the effort. The season was enjoyable, in spite of the aches and pains, because the weather was excellent and the foliage beautiful. We were able to travel to a number of beautiful sites to run. The season was generally fun also because of the camaraderie displayed amongst the team members. With most of the team runners coming back next year, we wish the younger runners the best of luck in improving their competitiveness throughout the next running season and future years. We would like to thank coaches Mr. Abrioux and Ms. Lépine for their continuous effort and time throughout the fall.

The Junior team started off not as well as we thought. When Pat Giroux came down from Senior soccer and Martin Gauthier and Henry Godin from Junior football, the team spirits rose. We did not win as many games as expected but we never gave up. Our team showed extreme talent offensively and defensively but we were the team that never got any breaks. Our team showed good sportsmanship, losing like a team and winning like champions.

I would like to thank Alex Bahn our manager who helped our team out very much. I also would like to thank our coach, Mr. Shefler, who put a lot of time and effort into this year's team.

I would like to finish by saying good luck to next year's team.

As everyone knows, our year was not too successful. Although we did not win any games, we had a lot of fun. Most of the time everybody was trying hard and even if we knew that we did not have a chance, we never gave up. Marilène Tremblay scored the only goal we made at our last game, on penalty shot. We would like to thank our coach, Mrs. Abrioux, for all the time she spent teaching us more about soccer. We would also like to thank Janet Edgar, our manager. We hope next year that the junior girls will be more successful

This season has been successful enough considering that we had only three players on the team who had played organized football before. Our biggest satisfaction, I think, is that we beat B.C.S. twice in two games, which is very good for a team full of rookies. I'm sure all the guys learned a lot this fall and enjoyed their season. We almost beat Galt the last game of the season which would have given us a .500 average. I thank Coach Philip and Coach Elliot for the time they spent with the football team this fall and I also thank co-captain Montminy who helped me a lot during the season. I hope we will be able to play again next season. I hope we will be able to play again next season even if we won't be strong enough and have a shortage of players.

BANTAM BOYS' SOCCER

The Bantam team this year was not at all like last year because Galt, the team we beat in the Championship last year, beat us 13-0 this year in only one game. Only four players from last year played for the fall 1985 team and they were: Dominique Tardif, Marcus Cheetham, Robert Werner and Trevor Denney.

We tied one game against Richmond and lost the rest. Thanks to Mr. Daly, our coach, for the time spent with us. He did a good job working against those odds training us. We on the team will miss him next year.

This year's Bantam girl's soccer team was as spirited as it was skillful. Reaching the E.T.I.A.C. finals after a brilliant victory over B.C.S., the girl's lost a hard-fought battle against AGRHS, 1-0. This year's team had talent and the desire to win. The enthusiasm and competitiveness of the young team made it a pleasure to coach and a treat to watch.

MIXED COMPANY

YOUTHEATRE

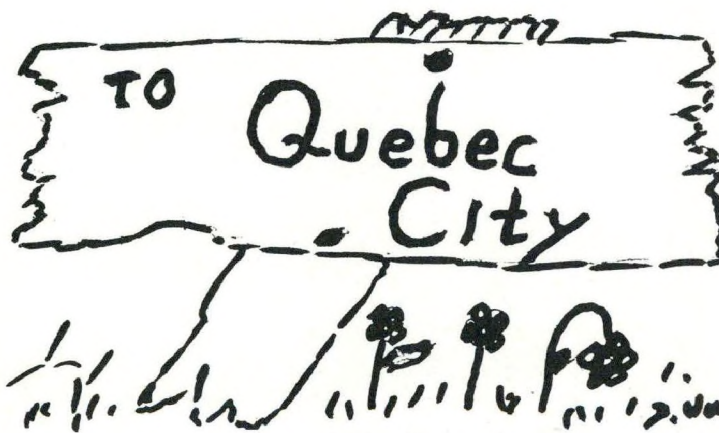

This year the grade ten History class enjoyed a well organized field trip to Quebec City on November 19, 1985. After a long tiring bus ride we arrived in Quebec City in the late morning on a cold, wintry day and our first stop was the "Citadelle". After the Citadelle we toured the area and viewed many buildings. We saw the War Museum, soldiers quarters and even the residence of the acting Governor General. Our next stop, in avoidance of the cold and bitter weather, was to satisfy our appetites. The local shopping mall became the sight of our mid-tour break.

After a "hearty" lunch we viewed a dramatic film recreation about the battle on the Plains of Abraham. We all enjoyed this immensely. From there we took off on a guided tour of the city which included a mini tour of the grounds at the University of Laval. The tour ended with a divisional walk between upper and lower town and included the boardwalk at the Chateau Frontenac.

The class as a whole enjoyed our trip to Quebec City. We hope the next year's class is able to go as well. We would like to thank the staff who joined us and especially Mrs. Gallant who organized the day.

The 1985-86 senior basketball team was one characterized by inexperience and youth. This, however, did in no way overshadow the extreme desire to play demonstrated by the team members. If looked at from a strictly won-lost point of view, this year's team was less than successful but success can be viewed in many different ways. Success for this basketball team was to be found in the word improvement. This was easy to see as teams that were far superior to us as the beginning of the year found themselves to be up against a vastly improved and much more competitive basketball team at season's end. Looking back, we see improvement, but looking ahead to the future gives a great feeling of optimism. With a good nucleus returning for next year, Stanstead college looks to be a force to be reckoned with in the senior basketball circuit.

Gary Bruce

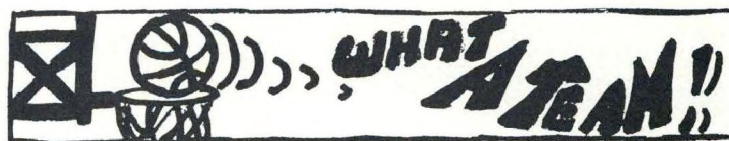

Senior Boys Basketball - 1985-1986

It was a difficult and frustrating year for many of the players on this year's Senior Boys Basketball Team. Even though we had lost our entire starting five from last year through graduation, we still had a good nucleus to build on and a generally optimistic squad when the season opened. As it turned out, the team simply had too much youth and too little experience and, much to the dismay of the players, lost the majority of our games. However, if one measures the success of the programme in terms of improvement over the year, then we not only had a good season but have a very promising outlook for next year if most of this year's regulars return.

The basketball season spans nearly five months of the school year and that means we spend a lot of time together both in our own gym and on the road. This year's personnel made my job very enjoyable and I want to thank the players for their support of the programme and their patience with me. They, of course, wanted to win more but still worked hard towards the more realistic goal of improving their own skills which they did both individually and collectively. I want to thank Neil Dickins for his two year support of basketball at Stanstead and congratulate him on such an outstanding year in which he led the team in all offensive and defensive categories. I want to thank my captain, Gary Bruce, who had excellent rapport with both me and the team and who set such a great example through his effort, desire, attitude and sportsmanship. I want to also thank my jolly manager and statistician, J.F. Frieur for his dedication to me and to the programme. His cheerfulness and good sense of humour made the season very enjoyable through some tough times.

Good luck to you all!

Being Captain this year presented me with a lot of new responsibilities; some I handled well - some I didn't. The added pressure of being captain also altered my feelings in a lot of instances, both on and off the court; some I handled well - some I didn't.

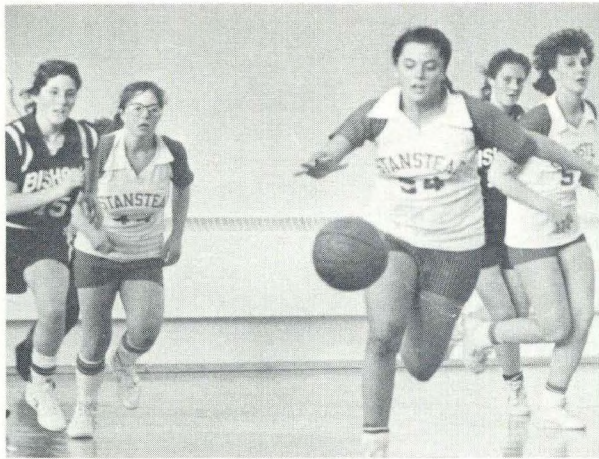

We really faced a rebuilding year. Most of last years starters were gone; we had a lot of growth and fresh faces - keen but unexperienced 'and, we also had a new coach - wow . . . awful - we were all thumbs.' What a pleasure it was for me to see the team develop and improve during the course of the season to the point where we executed so many of the drills to near perfection. Without doubt everyone improved her game and I would hope the team realizes just how far we've come.

Ms. Tweedie also had to learn a great deal as this whole scene was new to her. She exhibited a great deal of patience and handled herself with the composure of a veteran. Of equal significance is the fact that she was always there with a smile and some words of encouragement when someone was down. I and the team would like to thank her for her dedication and wish her many successful teams in the future.

I know I made my share of mistakes but for my first experience as captain I was proud to be with this team. I learned so much from my experience and hope if I'm ever fortunate enough to be in a similar situation I would have a group of players as understanding with me as you were.

Tina Barnes

The 1985-86 senior girls basketball season was generally a lot of fun for both the coach and the team. We were not as strong as some of the more recent girls' teams as we lost a number of our excellent players from last year. This year I had a few returning veterans along with a lot of youth and inexperience. Nevertheless, the girls worked very hard at developing and polishing their skills throughout the season and improved a great deal in many instances. I hope this is a sign of good things to come in the future.

There were two main highlights this season. First of all, we played extremely well at a private school basketball tournament in Montreal, including girls from both Quebec and Ontario. Secondly, even though we did not do very well in our conference, Eva Ciampini was the leading scorer in the E.T.I.A.C.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the girls for making this season so enjoyable for me and to send my best wishes for the future to those who will be graduating.

C. Tweedie, Coach

SENIOR HOCKEY

This year's team has been characterized as somewhat of a Cinderella team. We all felt it would be a rebuilding year with a large number of young, first year players. Our returning veterans - Colin Mickie, Alain Savard, Mike Khalil and Bernie Fleury certainly deserve a lot of credit in keeping the program competitive, while at the same time, helping the younger players to develop the needed experience.

Although we lost more games than we won, our season highlights certainly revolved around our two wins against Galt and our playoff wins against our arch rivals, Bishop's College School. This permitted us to compete in the E.T.I.A.C. Finals against Massey Vanier whom we lost to in a sudden death game, 4-2. Massey Vanier later went on to win the Provincial High School Hockey Championship.

This team certainly had its moments and I think all team members deserve to be proud of the way in which they presented themselves and represented the school.

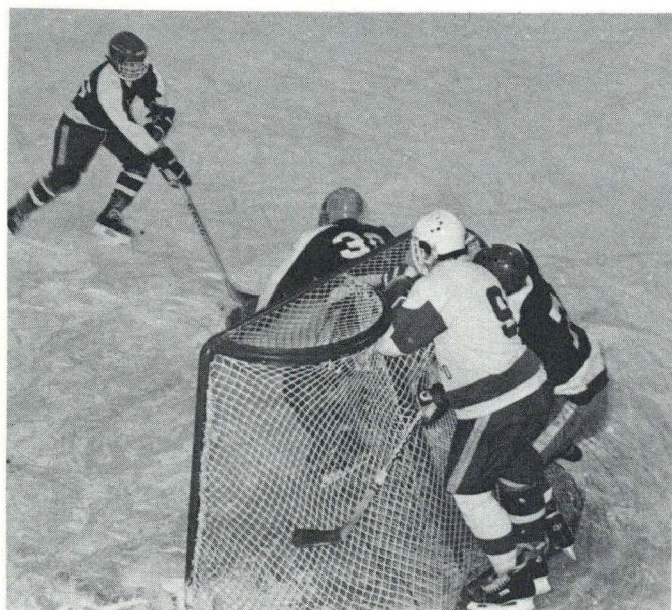

Alain Savard was the team's high scorer for the second year in a row while team captain, Colin Mickie was awarded the M.V.P. trophy for all round excellence and leadership. Special mention should be made of our veteran goaler, Mike Khalil, who was sensational in nets all season.

Way back at the beginning of November before hockey had even started, everybody was asking everybody, "what are we going to do, what does the team look like", and nobody had an answer. Then try-outs come, then we had a couple of practices, still there was answer. I must admit though the team really had some people worried. Then, coach got us our first game. It was exhibition against B.C.S. . . Everybody was so "psyched" for the game and none had a clue about the results. Then we went out and handily beat them 6-1. Well that seemed to show us what we were really like and we went on to shut-out Galt twice, finish second over all in the league, beat B.C.S. in a very exciting semifinal game and made it to the provincials.

Our 1985-86 hockey team really deserves a pat on the back.

CROSS-COUNTRY SKIING 1986.

This was the first year in memory that we were starting a season without a returning senior, so we knew this had to be a building year for the team and as such it was quite successful.

The snow was kind to us and we were able to get in a great deal of skiing. In fact there was so much snow that it was impossible to get our own trails in shape for racing, and for the first time we held our races on the town trails which were maintained in excellent condition. One problem was that trails have to be groomed much wider in order to accommodate the skating that is necessary if a skier is going to place well in competition.

Once again we hosted the first race of the season and it was very obvious that we were going to need a great deal of work in order to keep up with the very high standard of skiing being performed in the area. Not only were we short of experienced seniors but we were also short of numbers in many categories.

Considering our problems many of our skiers worked very hard and by the end of the season were placing well in incredibly competitive races. Although we raced every Wednesday and some Saturdays all our important races come in a two week period at the end of the season. This of course had to be the time we had several students on compulsory study and others down with the "flu." In fact we were hit so badly that for the first time we were unable to compete in the Independent Schools meet.

At the E.T.I.A.C. championships Rosalie Kasowski gained a first, Kim Woodstock and Virginie Drouin gained thirds, Nick Saparoff and Eric Hill gained fifths, and Jules Fettu gained a sixth. The Bantam girls won their shield and the overall girls' team came second.

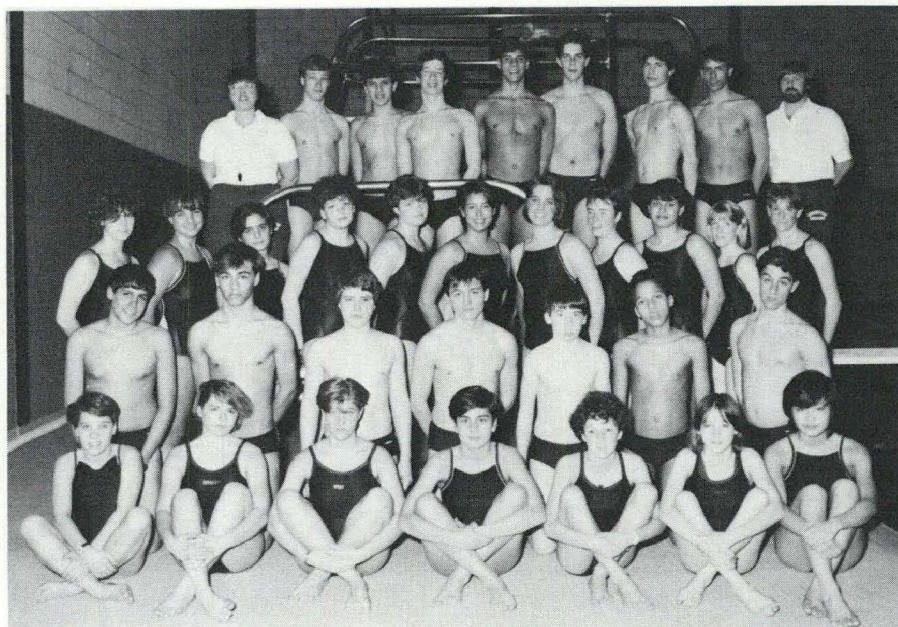

Although many of our better skiers were sick for the Zone meet those that went did well and gained a lot of points for the Eastern Townships who convincingly won the meet. Rosalie was first, Virginie was third, Eric was fourth, Nick was fifth and Kim was seventh.

This year the Bantam "S" was awarded to Rosalie Kasowski who won all but her first race. The Junior "S" was awarded to Kim Woodstock, Russell Griffith, Sean Hart and Nick Saparoff. The Senior "S" was awarded to Eric Hill.

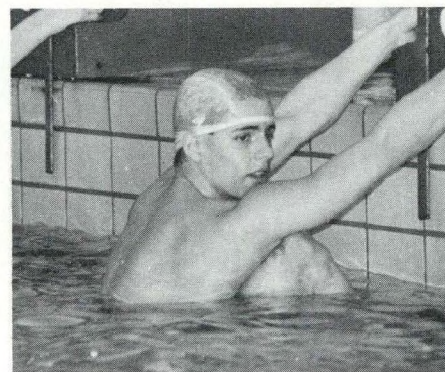

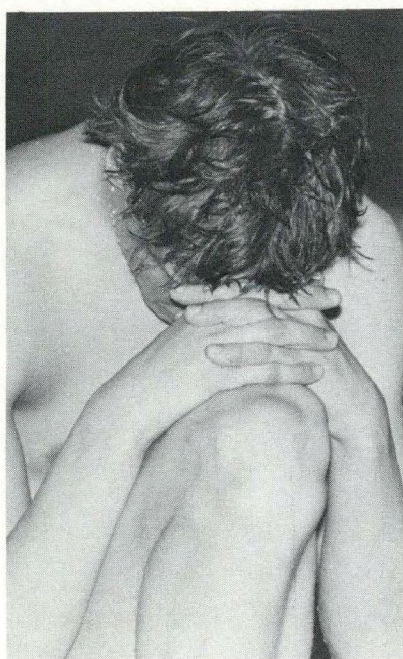

Congratulations to all those who worked hard. We now had the nucleus of a good team and we hope they will continue with the program next year.

The 1985/86 swim team once again had another excellent season, this year totally dominating the Sherbrooke league and showing very strongly in the Montreal league in which we competed. As one of the strongest teams in this year's competition, it felt very good to go to swim meets knowing that it was 'us' that everyone always talked about. Our swim team surprisingly amounted to almost one quarter of the school, a fact which helped us to show so strongly. Another important point is that we had many swimmers who have been swimming on the team for several years, thus lending some invaluable expertise and experience to an already strong nucleus.

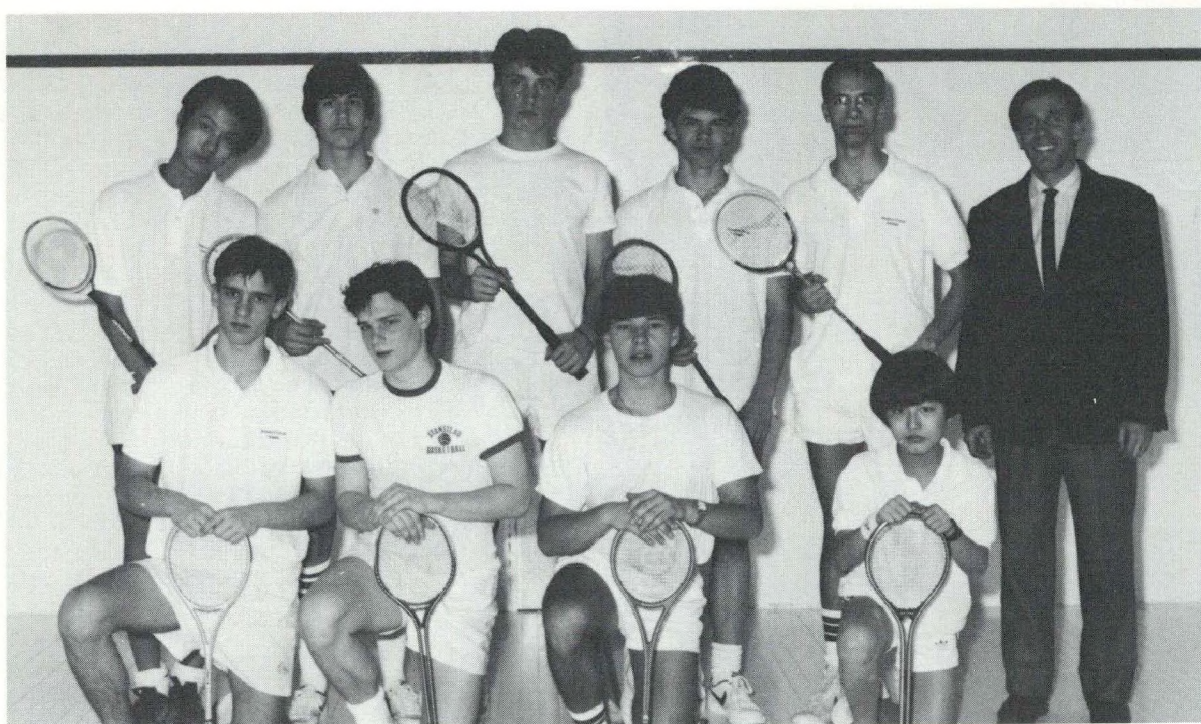

However, not all of our success can be attributed to our performances. The incredible enthusiasm and team spirit that was shown more than made up for the occasional bad temper or noisy bus ride, and invariably helped us to produce such a deafening noise when supporting our swimmers at our meets. Strong support is very important in a sport such as swimming, and the incredible amount shown made everyone feel good. That coupled with the willingness to learn and teach of most people made us into a strong, close-knit group, eager to learn yet always ready to show what team spirit and companionship is all about. That is what we owe a good deal of this year's success to.

Finally, we must thank the swimmers themselves. For you who gave your 100% every time and always contributed, thank you. This season was an excellent one mainly due to your effort and spirit, and you should feel pride in knowing that you have accomplished much in this year. To next year's swimmers, we wish you have as much good fortune as we had this year, and that you continue to represent Stanstead as best as you can.

The Stanstead boy's squash team played very well this year. Players like C. Duvert and E. Lyon had some sound experience from the year before and this gave the team a footing. Add to that really clever hitters who were always at the courts even on spares, like C. Sezlick and Li Lindsey and . . . well . . . The enthusiasm was high. Others who were very new to the game like T. Leuzy made incredible progress.

The eight girls who played made good progress and we were all proud of the results -- even holding our own against B.C.S. Being equal to the task made for an enjoyable and challenging year.

If the teams trailed in the tournaments, it was never very far. Both of us enjoyed working with all of you and we hope to see some of you again next year!

PEE-WEE HOCKEY

The Pee-Wee Hockey team was a collection of fearless players who loved to play but hated suicide practice drills.

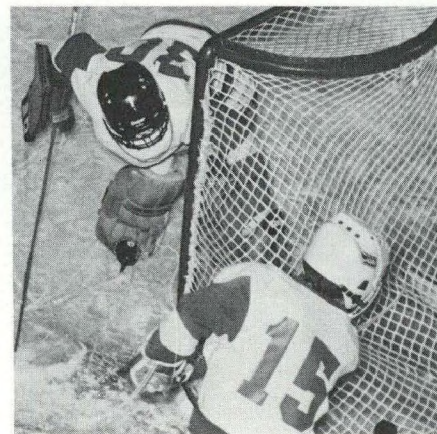

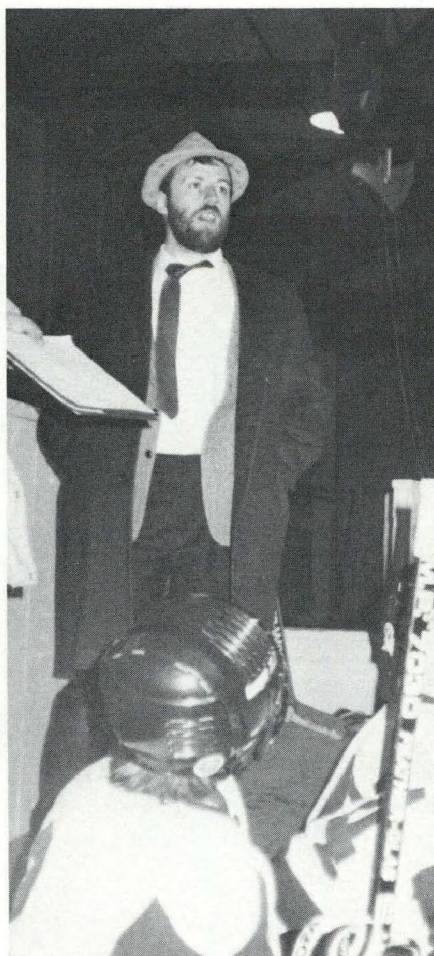

In fact some players were outstanding at avoiding these wonderful drills. But as the old saying goes "When the going gets tough the tough get going" and thus the guys who didn't skate suicides watched the next game from the bench.

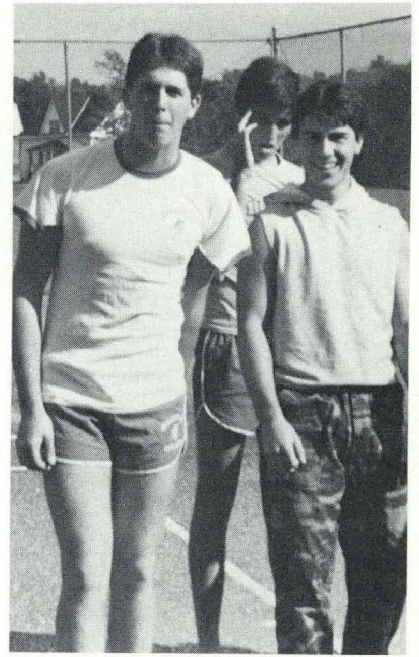

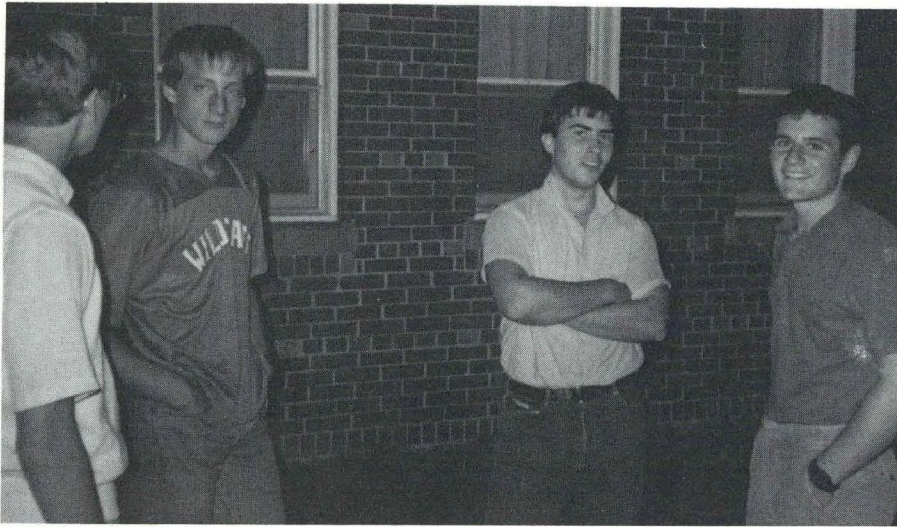

All kidding aside, this year's Pee-Wee/Bantam Team was an outstanding group of individuals. They worked their way to eleven wins, three losses and two ties. There were many highlights: Cedric Watier's big slapshot, Henri Godin's bone shattering checks and Trevor Denney's "tenaciousness". The list goes on. As coach, it was great to have Mr. Tom Daly as an assistant. We feel that if the majority of the players return we will have an excellent squad once again next year.

The 1986 track and field season was once again a pleasure for me. With such a variety of spring sports to choose from we no longer have a large enough team to realistically hope to win many meets in competition with the much larger schools but that did not deter our keen track and field athletes from doing their best in interscholastic competition.

I was delighted to have such a good turn out at the bantam level (both boys and girls) and hopefully many of them will continue in the program in the years to come. All in all there were some good individual performances and Stanstead athletes broke several school records and some meet records in outside competition. Four of our athletes competed in the Zone Championships at the University of Sherbrooke where they won five gold medals, one silver and one bronze.

I want to thank my co-coaches, Mr. Alex Philip, Mr. Peter Channell and Ms. Cheryl Tweedie. I wish to thank the entire team for their hard work and dedication and in particular I would like to express my appreciation to our co-captains Colin Mickie and Tina Barnes for their contribution to the track and field program at the school. Lastly, I want to congratulate our top boy and girl track athletes for the season. The Russell Langley Memorial Trophy for the best boy track athlete was won by Colin Mackie and the Alice Amaron Trophy for the best girl track athlete went to our delightful grade eight bantam, Isabelle Paradis.

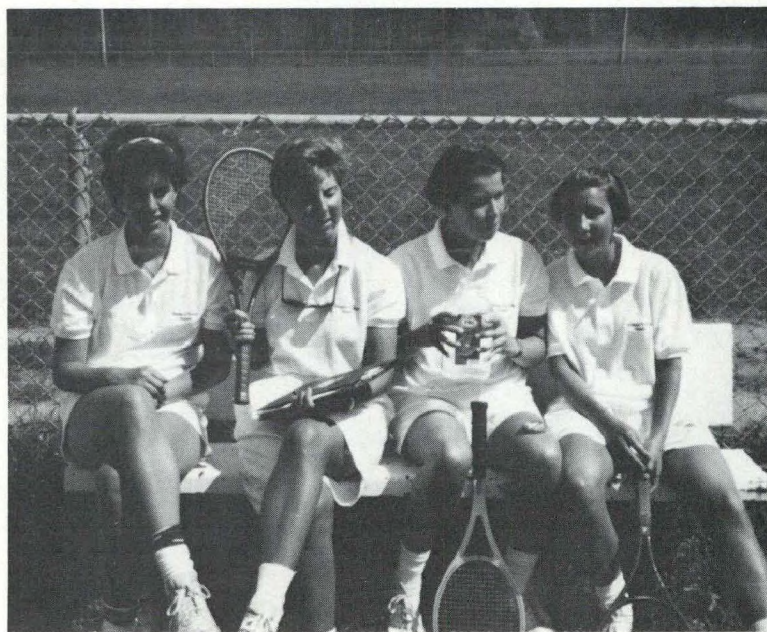

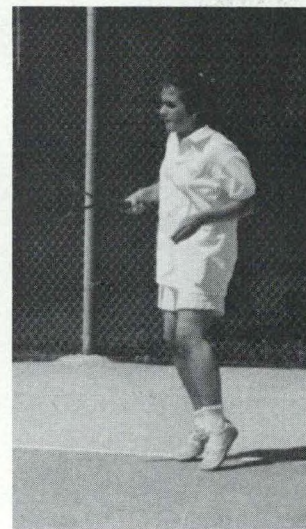

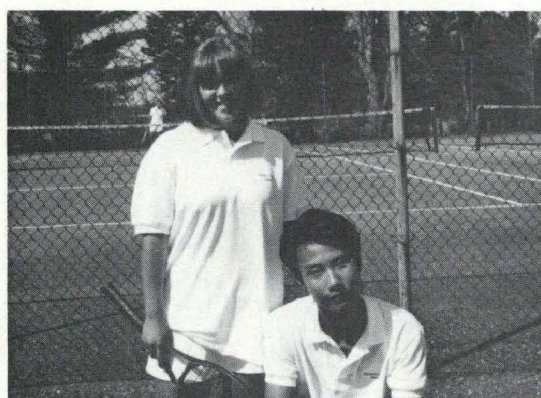

Good luck to those who are leaving us. To those returning - interval training begins in April.

This year's tennis program was made up of eight boys and eight girls, based on ability rather than age. With the weather being so cooperative this spring the tennis team enjoyed a very busy season as we played tournaments in Montreal, St. Johnsbury, two in Sherbrooke and also hosted a tournament of our own. While our overall record wasn't outstanding we did have one win and two ties for first place and a third place finish in the tournaments in which we competed.

It was my first year working with the tennis team and I found it to be a very worthwhile experience. I hope the team members enjoyed it as much as I did. Generally I felt that the tennis program was successful and I would like to thank those who worked hard and helped me out during the season.

The tennis shield for boys and girls singles championships within the school was won this year by Alain Savard and Josee Charette respectively.

For the first time at Stanstead College rugby was offered as a spring time sport. The response was good and sixteen players, only a few of whom had ever played before, made up the squad. Though lacking in experience they certainly made up for it in enthusiasm.

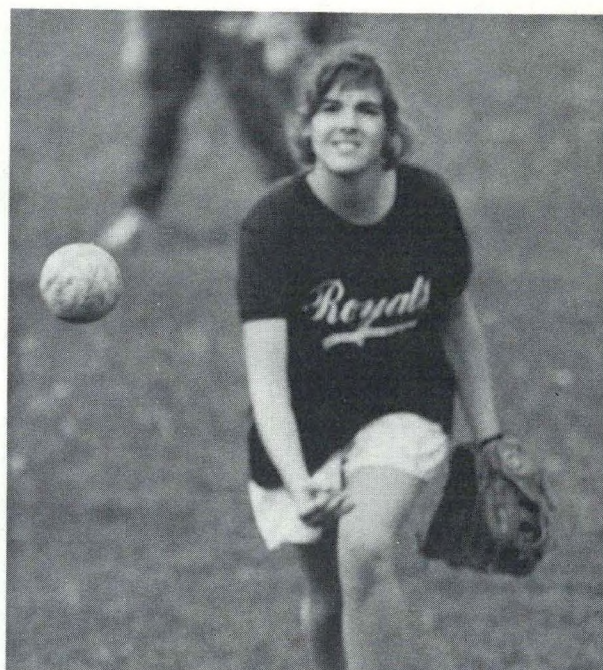

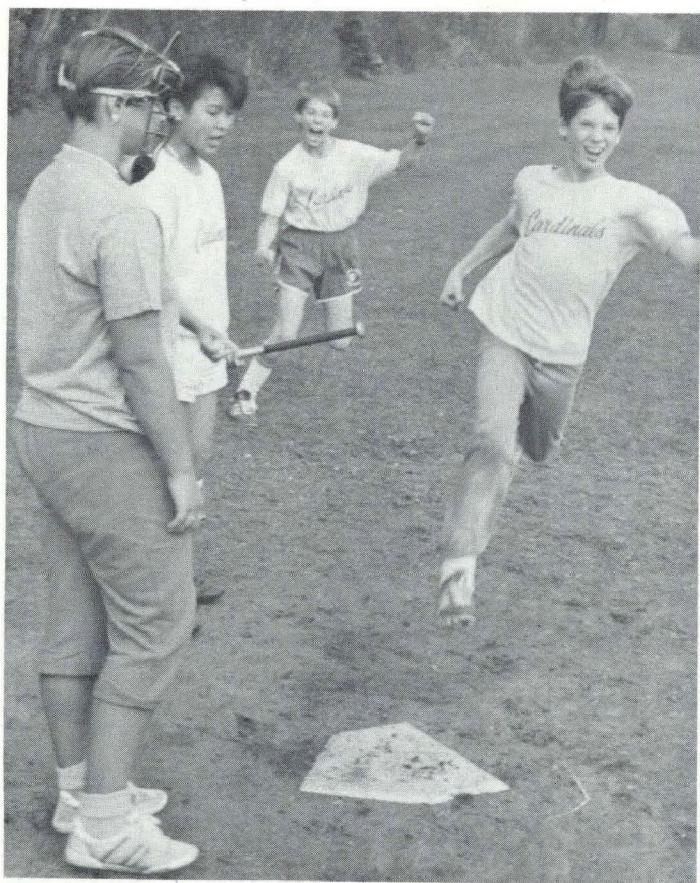

The first part of the season was spent learning the basics of the game and getting into shape. Two away games, one against B.C.S. and the other against massey vanier were played. A home game against B.C.S. closed out the season. A great deal of valuable experience was gained this year which should make it easier next year when we hope to join the league.

My thanks go to Eric Hill who helped coach and to Scott gamache, the captain, who showed the rest of the team how the game could be played.

Thanks to all the boys who played and I hope to see you here next season.

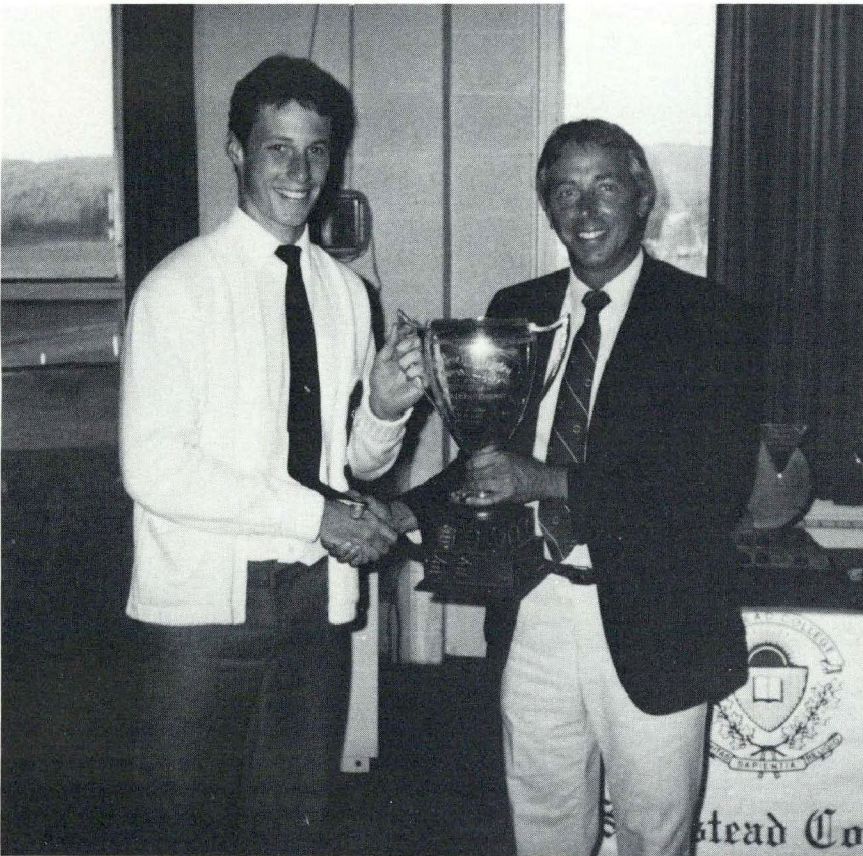

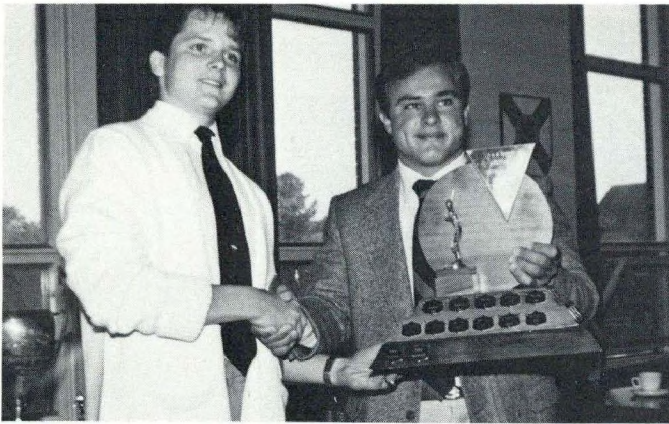

X. Abrioux, coach.

PARENTS DAY

GOOD-BYE GOOD-BYE

After two very successful years at Stanstead College as teacher of French and français, swimming coach, pianist for morning assembly and being totally involved in the school, Lise Morel is leaving to become Principal of a school in the Trois Rivières area.

Her positive outlook on life, her sense of humour and her choice of the "bon mot", which made up part of her ability to "exchange barbs" with the best of them, made her an interesting person with whom people could have a lot of fun.

As a teacher of French she excelled in developing her grade XII literature course as she motivated and inspired her students to appreciate Canadian and French writers. Few will forget her consistent applications of standards whether they dealt with school rules or the contents of her courses. She certainly is a person who inspires confidence and who is confident in her own decisions.

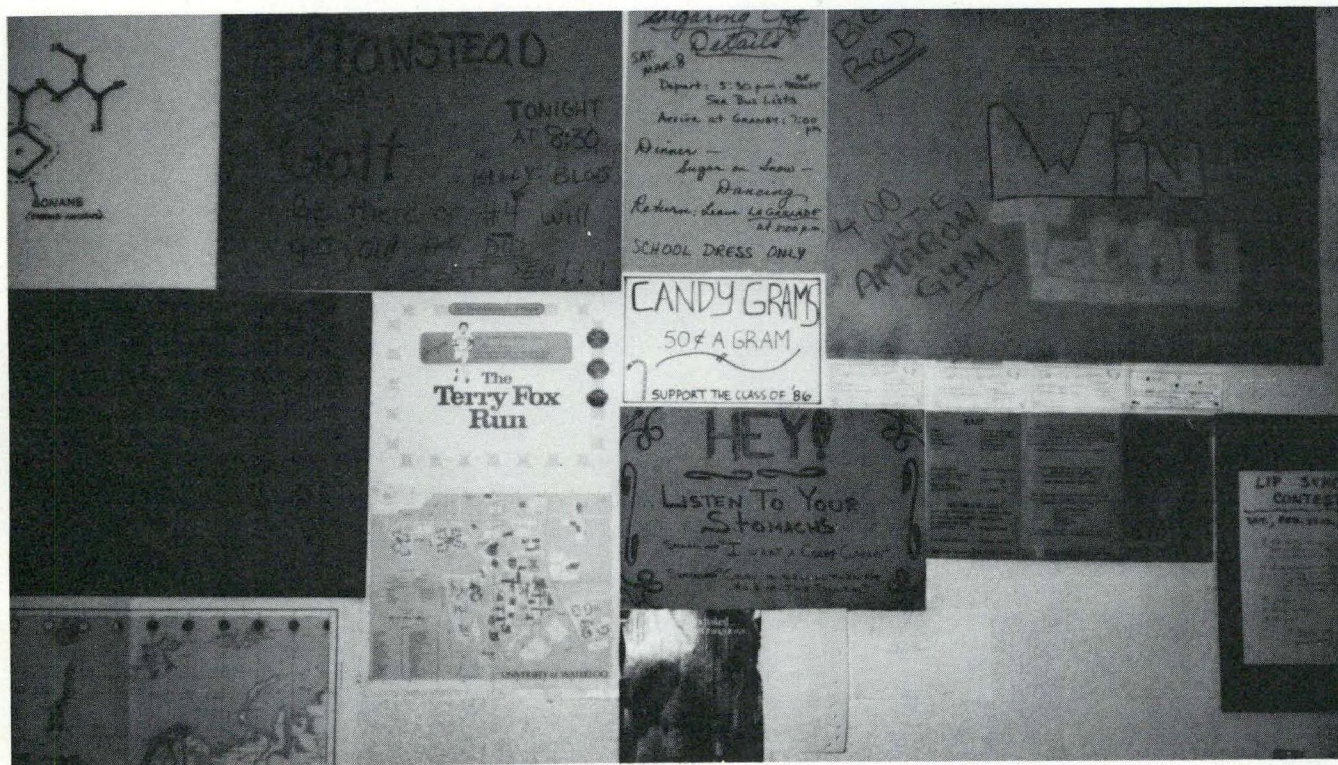

We shall miss her in the French Department and the college will miss her in many ways as she was involved to the fullest. We hope she will return to see us and that she has a great deal of success in the future.

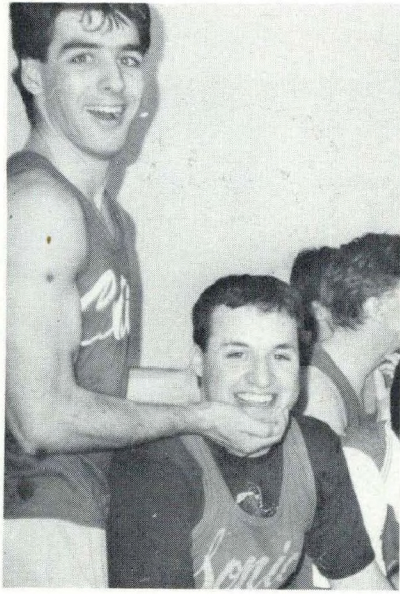

Nos meilleurs vœux de bonheur et de succès dans tout ce que tu entreprendras Lise. Tu nous manqueras et nous espérons te revoir de temps en temps. Tu as d'autres projets et nous comprenons ton désir de le mener à terme. Nous avons apprécié ton dévouement pendant les deux années passées à Stanstead. La créativité et la ténacité que tu possèdes te serviront longtemps.

CAN YOU REMEMBER

A L U M N I

Dear students and staff:

It is with great pleasure that I welcome all graduates to the alumni association. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the entire student body and staff of Stanstead College for your kindnesses during the past school year.

While thinking of what I was going to say to you I decided to shy away from the speech you would normally see on this page. Instead, I would like to tell you how Stanstead College can be your friend for the rest of your life.

I think I can best get my point across by telling you a bit about my life during and after my Stanstead years. I came to Stanstead in the old days, 1968, after enduring a rather difficult time in the public school system. I had had a hard time because I was born with a birth defect that has left me with some physical handicaps. I came to Stanstead hoping to get a better education while avoiding some of the torment I had gone through in the public school. I hope that the kids who attended private school had more class and would not pick on me. I was only wrong about one thing: they still made fun of me. People will be people. I was right about the Stanstead students and staff; they have class. The students still teased me but once they got to know me they treated me like one of the gang. I have noticed over the years that the students at Stanstead after a short period of time cease to be just students in a school and become a family member.

Your days at Stanstead have most probably been a mixture of good times and bad times. You have probably made friends that will stay close to you for the rest of your life, like I have, and then there will be others you will never see again. The same will happen with the staff. There will be some you will always remember. The important point to remember is that Stanstead College, your fellow students, the staff, the Board of Trustees and your alumni will always be your friend no matter where your future takes you.

I would like to finish by wishing you all well in your future experiences and hope that you will remember your school as the Beach Boys did in their famous song of the sixties "Be True to Your School". If you are true to your school, it will always be true to you.

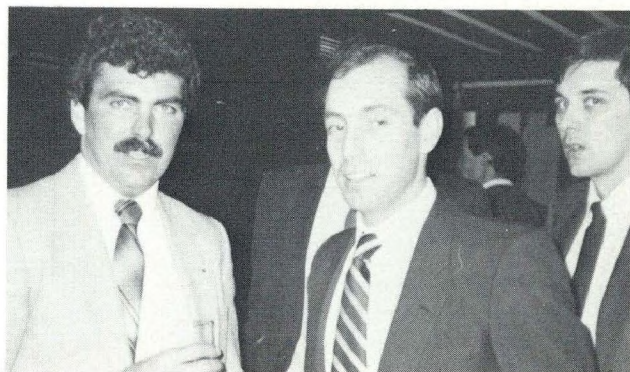

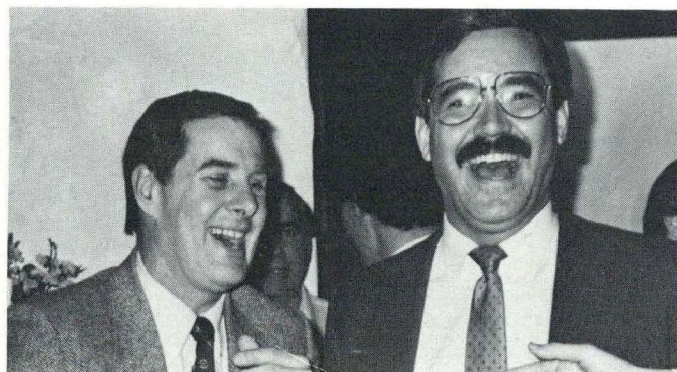

Thanks for listening to a friend.

Best wishes,

Peter Wynne

President, Alumni Association.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming, 1985 - What a spectacular day it was! Over three hundred alumni and their guests converged on the campus. They came from all across Canada and the United States - from British Columbia to California - from six provinces and nine states. Two hundred and sixty people had made reservations for the banquet and the dance and on the day of the event many alumni phoned or came to the campus hoping to pick up a cancelled reservation or a "no-show". The majority of them were disappointed.

The weather was the only thing that did not cooperate, the deluge hitting just as the football and soccer games were starting, but the teams battled on, covered with mud. In soccer, the alumni won in a close game 3-2. In football the team was divided, with old boys and our present team playing together. The Red Team won 24-6 against the White team. The winning Captain was an alumnus, Gary Hindly.

Visiting alumni covered the years from 1915 to 1985 and practically all years were represented. Photographic displays were popular as people discovered themselves in their particular years. One room was effectively decorated to look like one of the girls' rooms at Sunnyside Castle in the early 1900's. Shawls, hats, feathers, lace and pendants decorated the walls; stern gentlemen stared down from gilt edged frames and elegant ladies in long skirts with bustles held their graduation certificates in their hands. Glass cases displayed early report cards; bills ($2.75 for one term's tuition and books in 1884), valentines and wedding invitations, all the memorabilia from the earliest years. In the library, photo boards covered all periods of school life.

Present day students volunteered their help and conducted tours of the school, helped with registration and with decorating, and generally became involved. They were described by the visitors as enthusiastic, well groomed and polite. They added a great deal to the Homecoming.

After a crowded but enjoyable cocktail hour in LeBaron Hall, the banquet was held. Gordon McGilton was an excellent master of ceremonies and there were short speeches by Headmaster Barry Gallant, Development Officer Joan MacDonald, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Donald Ross, and Chairman of the Alumni Association, Stephen Elder. Then Gordon McGilton called on someone from each decade to talk about their time as Stanstead College, starting with Kim Battah, a 1985 graduate and ending with Dr. Walter Pfeiffer, a 1915 graduate. In between were John Nadeau (the 70's); Ian Cook (the 60's); Bert Titcomb (the 50's); Roy Amaron (the 40's); Peggy Lamb Montgomery (the 30's); and John Colby (the 20's). Many aspects of school life were well chronicled by the speakers.

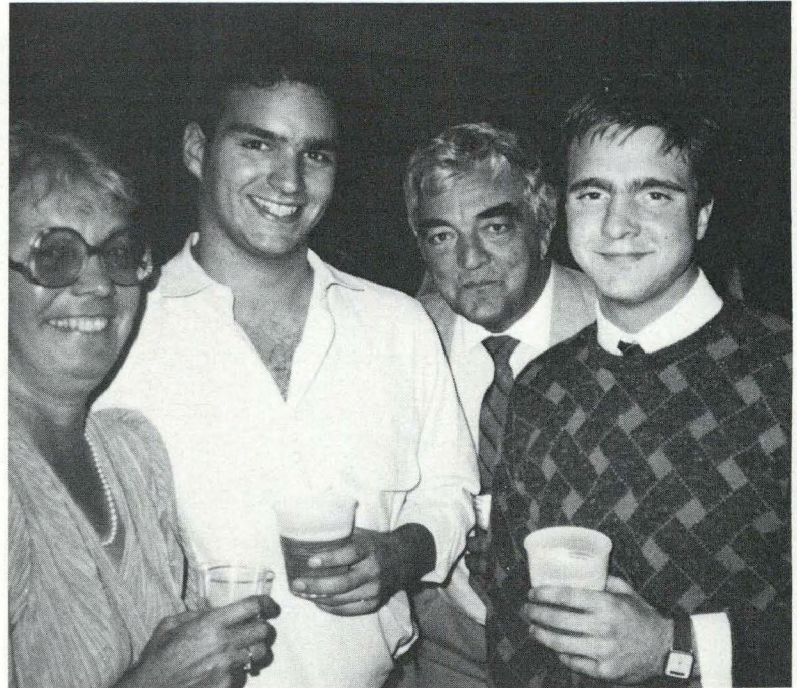

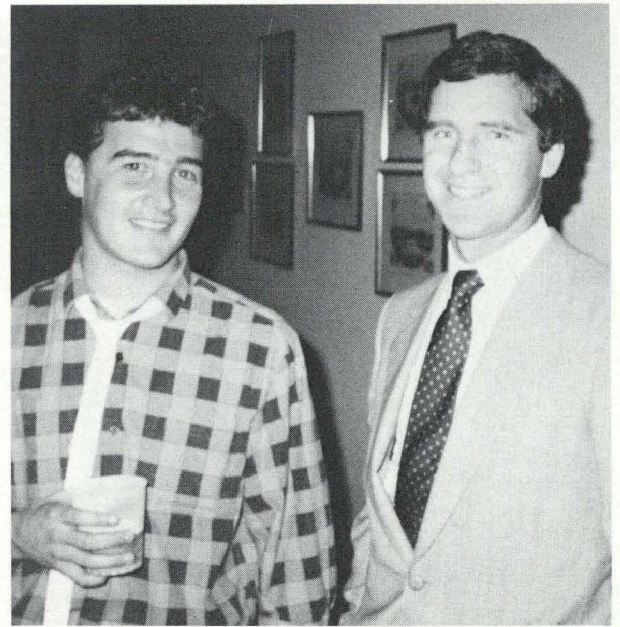

Al Rich, on behalf of the Alumni Association, presented Mrs. MacDonald with a bouquet of red roses as a thank you for her work in organizing the reunion. During the evening many door prizes, donated by various alumni and companies, were presented by the Alumni Association and the raffle prize of a trip for two to Florida was won by Mrs. Joan Peirce, the Headmaster's secretary, much to the delight of all her friends at the school.

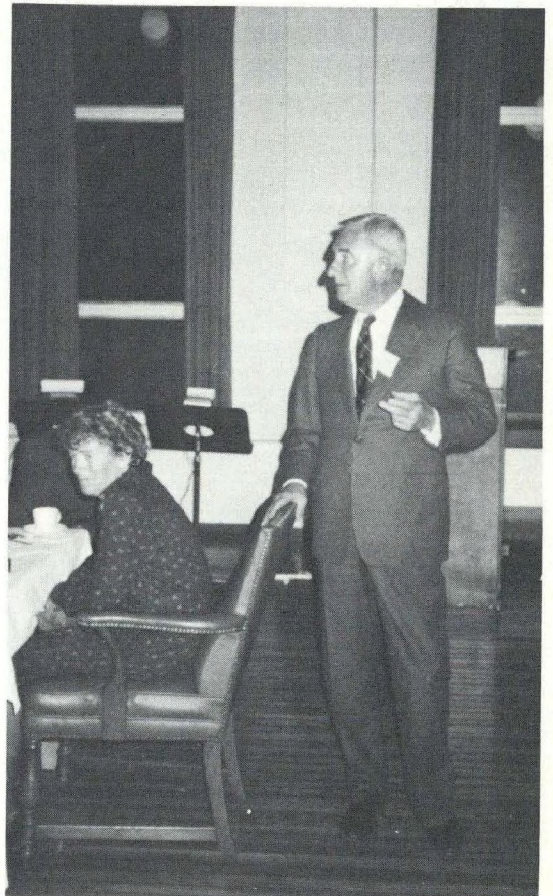

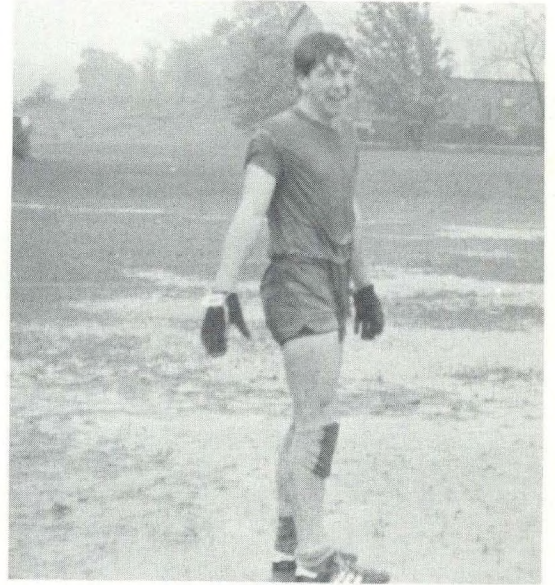

"The Moonlighters" played music for all ages until 1.00 a.m. and the crowded dance floor paid tribute to their popularity.

Brunch was served on Sunday morning and the "tuck shop" had a busy time selling souvenirs of Stanstead College.

Thank you for coming Alumni, it was great to see you all!

Joan MacDonald

LITERATURE AND ART

A Natural Moral

*The sea was calm,
the boats were anchored,
yet, there wasn't need.
The unlit light house,
standing on the small island,
looking for boats in need.
The dark shadowy figure,
lurking across the sky,
catching the light house unaware.
The boats looked calm sitting on the sea,
facing the distant figure.....
The silence before the storm,
a natural moral.*

David Wu

The Tenuous Creek

A tenuous creek in the effulgence of the morning flows like raindrops upon green spring leaves.
Making the gentle noise of a bird flying,
the brook follows a path through the trees.

The sun's brilliancy cuts the luxuriant vegetation
as lightening in dusky nights.
Still flowing, sparkling and in motion, the fine stream runs and fights
its' passage among the boulders.

It shall flow in lakes, oceans or rivers,
crossing splendid lands of wonders.
Always near the herbs with plentitude of dew,
in the effulgence of the morning,
the tenuous creek will continue.

- Catherine Sansoucy

The Sea

Sitting on a smooth, level quarry watching her body move
as the luminous sun
plunges beyond her blue soul contemplating her vastness of beauty.

At her limit rests an amber sheet coated with solid masses of brown that have been rinsed by her splash of fine salty water crystals
and now her sprinkle has to retreat.

Silence of the nature has taken over and her graceful, moving body is missing from the covered amber sheet which was still apparent before but which is now gone forever . . .

. . . Until I arouse to view it once more.

- Marilène Tremblay

Un rêve

Une nuit je rêve . . .
Un souvenir peut-être
D'un doux matin muet
Qui avec son absence de
Mauvis temps
Me guide vers un jardin en fleur
Qui sera au bout du chemin . . .
Quand je me réveillerai.

- Marilène Tremblay

Absence

Après cinq ans d'absence
ce chemin
me rappelle un souvenir d'autrefois . . .
D'innocence
D'enfance
Qui reste scellé
Qui reste muet
Dans les branches
De ma mémoire.

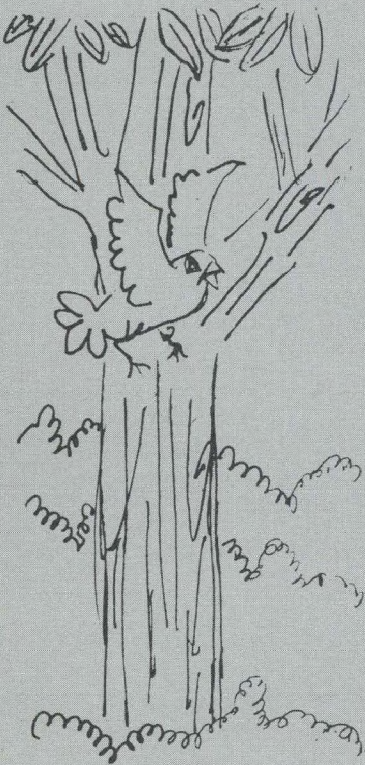

- Jean-François Prieur

Souvenir

Admirant un jardin
Dans l'aube d'un splendide matin,
Le coeur triste, brisé,
J'ai souvenir qu'autrefois,
Quand je n'étais qu'enfant,
Ma mère possédait
Un ravissant jardin.

La nostalgie qu'apporte ce souvenir
Fait mal au coeur,
Car maintenant . . .
Loin,
Je sais que jamais je ne
Retournerai
Dans l'innocence de mon enfance.

- Catherine Sansoucy

La Lanterne

La lanterne, par la fenêtre sourit
En dansant sur sa longue mèche.
Sa chaleur lumineuse nous nourrit.
Sa lueur est une grande richesse.
Elle durera pour l'éternité at pour toujours!

Sa flamme ravissante et glorieuse
Monte de plus en plus haute, doucement.
Sa couleur brillante et joyeuse,
La flamme, en nous rechauffant
Nous montre de la charité et de l'amour!

- Mary Ann Brus

La Lanterne

La lanterne par la fenêtre sourit
Sa merveilleuse flamme reluit
J'en suis toute épanouie
Cela peut être romantique et jolie
Lorsque tout près tu en est blotti.
Cette flamme qui te réjouit
Et soudain qui a bâti
Un amour et une amitié infinie
De ce cadeau qui est la vie.

- Isabelle Paradis

C'était chez moi

Ils ont détruit ma maison, pour faire du béton.
Ils ont détruit mon jardin, pour faire des gradins.

Tout ce qu'ils ont pu laisser, ce sont mes briques roses.
Tout ce qui reste est un triste paysage morose.
Mon terrain détruit ressemble à un champ de guerre.
Je l'ai quitté, je ne voulais plus cet enfer!

A côté de chez moi, ils ont bâti des tours.
Parti, je ne compte pas faire de retour.
J'ai heureusement découvert la vie de vautour,
Bien perché tout en haut de ces merveilleuses tours.

Aujourd'hui, j'ai voulu revenir dans ma cours,
Pour m'appuyer contre ma maison en ruine.
Bien assis sur une brique j'ai fait mon retour.
Rien ne tenait, sauf une certaine déprime.

Goodbye to a Friend

by "Tigger" Antigone Anderson

You and I look out into the Same world: empty grey days,
Hassled down jostled hallways --
But something in our colors is Wrong -- I see through
Brown eyes, you through blue.

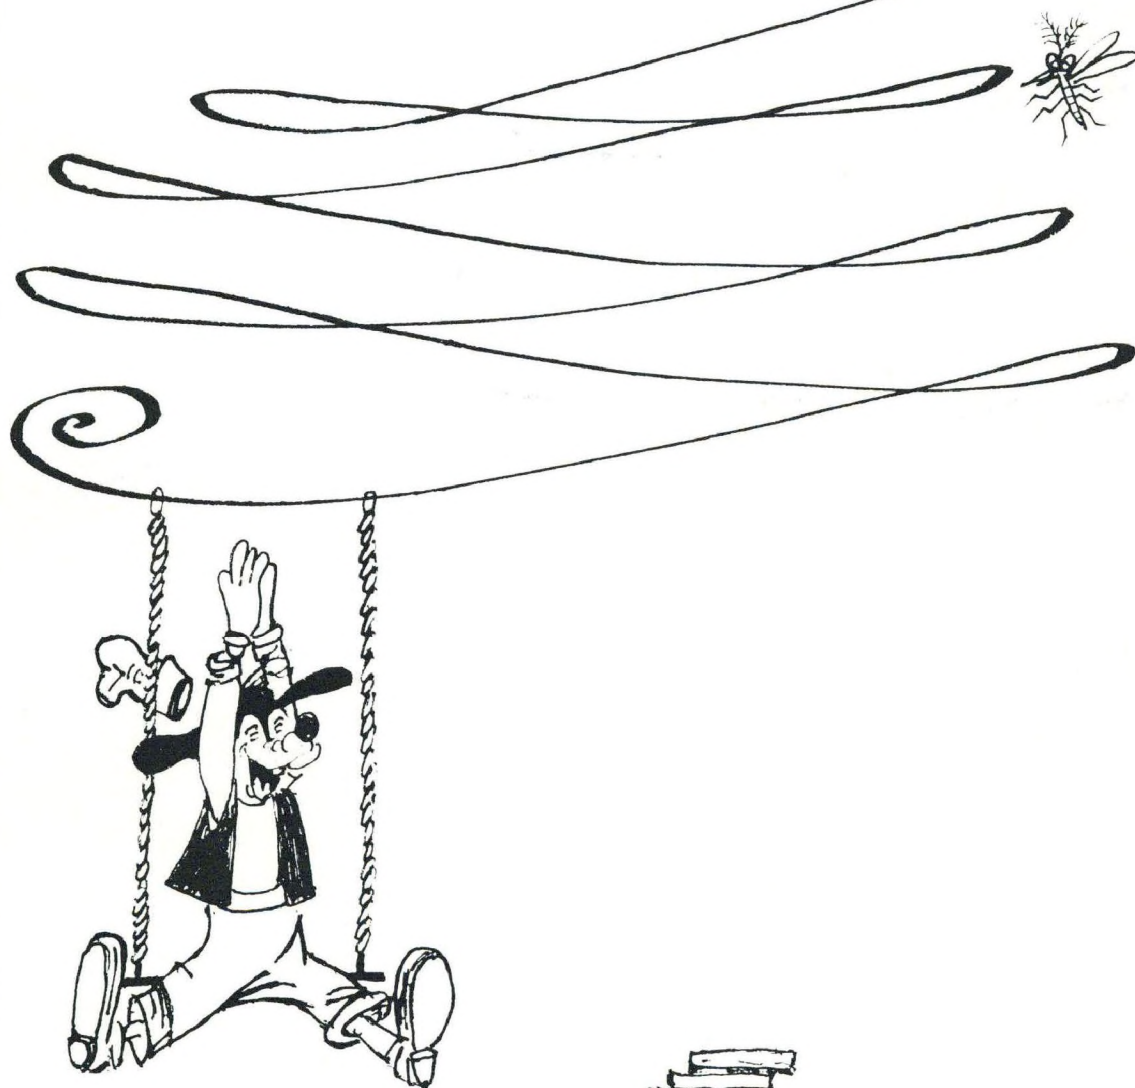

I'm the shadow on your
Doorstep, my voice an echo
In the air -- yet here I stand
Invisible. Walking out I'm
Chained to your stride --
But the road you're taking goes
Too far, and chokes me with its dust.

I tried to step inside your
Skin, to read the heart and mind inside
My favorite facade --
But you only shivered as my Chill gnawed at your bones -- and

Together we are still far Apart, yet somehow bonded the
Brown and blue so glassy --
You're looking for the body that
Will reflect the color of your Dreams of blue and green --
Somewhere on the other side.

The tears I shed fall for Willpower lost. No sanctuary can Save me -- there's no way to Bridge the ocean - channel waters that Claw at me. You've saved me more than Once so now I'm letting go -- just don't Forget me when I'm gone . . .

ANOTHER CALM EVENING AT STANSTEAD COLLEGE

A VERY SEVERE STORM

HITS STANSTEAD AREA

Most of you were gone but a few of the grade ten and eleven students were diligently studying for their Physics exam when a very violent storm struck the Stanstead area at 8.22pm on Monday, June 16. Much damage was done in the area with several barns being flattened and several buildings and homes damaged. Many trees were uprooted and the power lines came down in several places. We were very lucky at the College and lost only five trees and suffered a small amount of structural damage.

6 YEAR CLUB

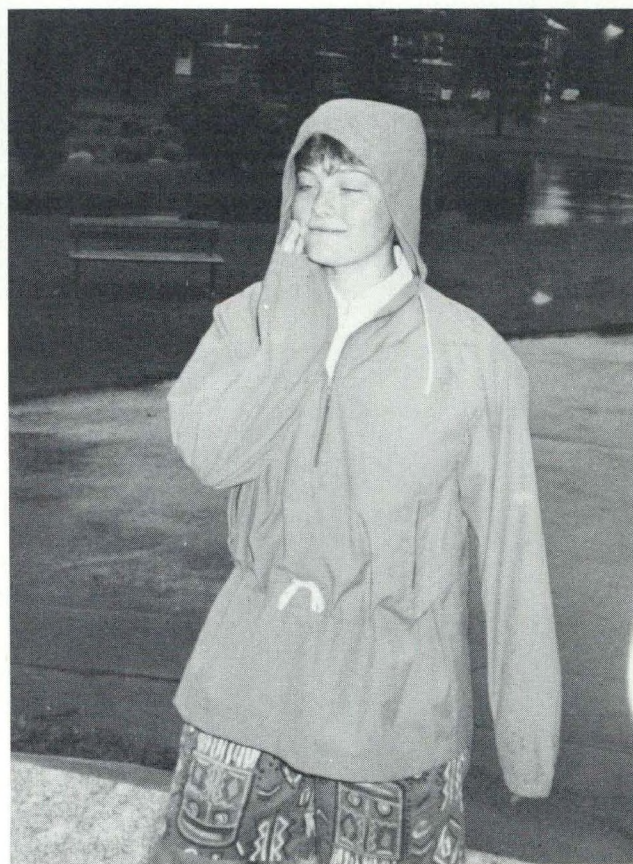

One would think that being the only six year student would make me feel different from everybody else, but I actually don't because the people here at Stanstead make you feel as though you have known them all your life.

During my six years here, I've really grown up and changed a lot. I've met lots of neat and different kinds of people and I must say that I have liked them all. I remember in my first year here there were only seven of us in my grade and we all had a really great time. As each year went on the grade kept growing larger and larger and I got to know lots of people and I became really close to them. Unfortunately, this year, we started out with fifteen people and ended up with only thirteen. Some people said that this was the best year but I beg to differ. I think that my grades eight and ten years were my best.

Next year I'm off to England for a year and I can't wait to come back and see Stanstead again to reminisce with my old friends and remember what great times that I have had at Stanstead College.

Good luck to everyone.

Selling revenue properties took

GUTS AND HARD WORK.

nobody ever said success would happen overnight

Remember how frightening it was in 1981, when the prevailing Real Estate Wisdom in Canada seemed like "Let's wait a while and hope things get better?"

Obviously, things didn't get better, and people got tired of waiting. The first year was hard. This industry didn't need just another broker!

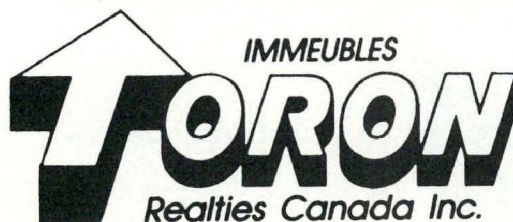

It needed better marketing! So we took the old system of Residential Sales and applied it to Revenue Properties. It had been done, but not on an "extensive scale".

Our method involved putting all Revenue

Properties (large buildings) on the Multiple Listing Service Inventory, and then generating a mail order system to keep it going. Remember how apartment building owners were reluctant at first to allow their properties to be listed on such an extensively circulated inventory? Remember how their confidence grew as they discovered that it was being applied responsibly?

We added Honesty, Product Knowledge, Human Understanding and a strong desire to fight tooth and nail to get our clients the best deal possible.

Howarth INC.

(A Scottish Shop established over 50 years
Maison de tradition écossaise établie depuis plus de 50 ans)

*Specializing in quality clothing and furnishings
for the whole family*

*Spécialistes en vêtements et accessoires de qualité
pour toute la famille*

Howarth Inc. is a Montreal tradition. They have dressed generations of families beginning with school uniforms for private and public schools, both English and French, through to custom made suits, shirts and finest ladies' fashions. The sort of outfit that always looks right. Under one roof you can outfit the whole family.

Howarth Inc., c'est toute une tradition canadienne. Au fil des générations, des familles entières nous ont fait confiance autant pour les uniformes scolaires pour écoles privées et publiques anglophones et francophones que pour les ensembles et chemises sur mesure et les plus belles modes pour dames.

Howarth Inc., c'est le genre de vêtement qui tombe toujours bien. Chez nous, on peut trouver des vêtements pour toute la famille.
